

RUSSIANS ALL
FEAR THIS DAYAnniversary of the Ascension of the Czar to the Throne of His Fathers.

WAIT FOR NEWS OF NEW DISASTER

Fall of Port Arthur Is Expected Today—Sad News From Around Mukden Does Not Relieve the Anxiety.

[Special by Scripps-McLae.]

St. Petersburg, Nov. 3.—Anxiety exists over the military situation at Port Arthur and Mukden. Little news has been received from Mukden, Gen. Sakharoff's telegram of Nov. 2 merely indicating that matters were at a deadlock around Shakh. The Japanese had made some tentative moves on both flanks, which were checked. There were signs of an advance by the Japanese against the Russian left wing.

Foreign reports from Port Arthur are decidedly gloomy. While the authorities profess confidence in Gen. Stoessel's ability to hold out, the popular feeling is that the heroic garrison, which already has made a historic defense, must now be near the limit of human endurance.

Depresses the Russians.

The official reports from Tokyo describing the desperate assaults on Port Arthur beginning Oct. 26 created visible depression at the war office. The sustained character of the bombardment with siege guns and the breaching of the walls by underground mines, but, above all, the fact that the Japanese government, after weeks of silence regarding the operations of the besiegers, has given out these reports before actual success has crowned their efforts, convinces the military authorities that Gen. Nogi is making a supreme effort to carry the fortress and feels confident of success.

Anniversary for Czar and Mikado. They believe the assault was timed for the announcement of the fall of the fortress to be made on the birthday of the mikado to-day, which, by a strange coincidence, is the tenth anniversary of the accession of Emperor Nicholas and a great Russian holiday. The day, therefore, is expected to be marked by fate for a day of immense rejoicing either for Japan or Russia, according as the present assault succeeds or fails.

The war office is trying to buoy up the Russian hopes with reference to the long and successful defense Gen. Stoessel has conducted, but things have reached such a pass with the garrison and the character of the present attempt on the fortress is evidently so determined that the authorities frankly admit they would not be surprised if the end was at hand.

Czar to Bid Troops Good-By. The emperor and empress and the imperial family attended a solemn requiem mass yesterday at the Church of the St. Peter and St. Paul fortress in memory of Alexander III, who died just ten years ago. The emperor will leave St. Petersburg in a few days for Skirnowice, and on his way home will stop at Dvinsk and bid farewell to the Fourth army corps, which will be included in Gen. Grippenberg's army. The Fourth army corps is quartered at Minsk, Slonim, Bobruisk, Gomel and Rogachev.

It is reported that Gen. Zilinsky, Viceroy Alexieff's chief of staff, will become chief of the general staff, succeeding Gen. Sakharoff, the present minister of war, who was chief of staff under Gen. Kourapatkin and whose place has been only provisionally filled by Gen. Proloff since Sakharoff's resignation.

ALL JAPAN PAYS HONOR TO
THEIR MIKADO'S BIRTHDAYHope To Learn of the Capture of Port Arthur During the Day...To Make Desperate Attempt.

[Special by Scripps-McLae.]

Tokyo, Nov. 3.—All Japan is today celebrating the mikado's fifty-second birthday. The Japanese are enthusiastically commemorating the day and news of the capture of Port Arthur is hoped for as a fitting climax of the day. The city is gayly decorated, and the people are parading the streets waving the national flag and singing patriotic songs. A dispatch from Pigeon Bay announces that the soldiers of the Mikado have succeeded in tunnelling within eight miles of Golden Hill. There is also a report from New Chwang this morning announcing that several explosions have been heard in Port Arthur supposed to be magazines or mines blowing up. On Tuesday the army made a gigantic effort to capture the city and it is reported that the Russian gunboats in the harbor were badly damaged by shot and shell.

Information from Chofoo indicates the Japanese have captured positions, placing the east side of Port Arthur at their mercy and practically sealing the fate of the citadel. The Japanese have taken Rihung mountain, Singahn mountain, East Keek Wan mountain. These four capture the east part of the ridge and the siege of Port Arthur proper, they have completed by placing eleven howitzers. The infantry attacks were planned for noon of Nov. 3 against the Orthing Keek Wan and Banjusan defenses.

NEGRO ENDEAVORS TO PROTECT GIRL'S HONORSlashes Man Who Induces His Sister-in-Law to Abandon Dance and Walk With Him.

Aurora, Ill., Nov. 3.—Defending the honor of his sister-in-law, Rosa Patterson, a girl 16 years of age, George Scott, colored, of Aurora, engaged in a quarrel with Lloyd D'Courcy, an English negro, and in a fit of rage cut his throat with a big knife. D'Courcy died five minutes later on his way to the hospital in the ambulance. Scott was arrested shortly afterward and confessed to his crime, and was held to the grand jury without bail. The girl is at Scott's home under police surveillance, detained as the principal witness.

The girl met D'Courcy at a dance and D'Courcy persuaded her to take a walk with him. Scott saw the couple leave the building and started after them. He demanded that she leave the Elgin man, whereupon D'Courcy told Scott it was none of his business, and punched Scott's nose. Scott then pulled out a big knife and slashed D'Courcy across the throat, severing the jugular vein. D'Courcy ran west to the police station, where he fell, dying.

Won't While His Credit Is Good. Short ladies should avoid much trimming on their skirts, says a fashion writer. Yes, and so should long ladies if their husbands are short. Chicago News.

MINERS ARE TO DECIDE
STATUS OF THE STRIKEBelief Prevails That an Effort Will Be Made to Reorganize the Engineers
Under Mineworkers' Union.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 3.—Mining engineers on strike throughout Illinois are anxiously waiting for the outcome of the meeting of the United Mineworkers' executive board of the Illinois district, which will be held at Springfield to-day. If the miners determine to stand by their contract with the Illinois operators and refuse to order a sympathetic strike the hope of the engineers for a successful termination of the strike will be shattered.

It is improbable that the miners will support the engineers. The alternative course, which probably will be chosen, is for the United Mineworkers to reorganize the mining engineers under their jurisdiction and proceed to work at once.

"I believe that the strike will be over within two or three days," said Herman Just, commissioner of the Illinois Coal Operators' association. "Much depends on the outcome of the Mineworkers' meeting in Springfield, but I believe the miners realize that the refusal of the engineers to arbitrate was fatal to the success of their cause."

Municipal Music Hall. Among the various "public utilities" owned by Yarmouth, England, is a music hall, out of which the municipality made nearly $4,000 last year.

A CARTOON TO FIT THE NEWS.—When the Japs are on top look at the picture this way.

STOLE BRASS AND
THEN SOLD ITMadison Police Have in Custody
Three Desperate Young Thieves.

(Special to The Gazette.)
Madison, Wis., Nov. 3.—George and Walter Schmitt and Sanford Anderson, three young men, were arrested by the Madison police for breaking into the warehouse of the Western Supply Co. and stealing brass fixtures valued at $100. They sold the articles to a local junk dealer for $3. George Schmitt told the police that his brother Walter and Anderson committed the theft but that he is innocent. The Schmitt brothers reside in Milwaukee but Anderson's home is in Madison. Walter Schmitt has a hard record. In 1900 he was committed to the industrial school for boys at Waukesha for burglarizing a house. After being confined to the institution for some time he was injured by being caught in machinery in the laundry. He was released and placed under parole. The legislature of 1902 appropriated $1,000 which was paid to him for damages.

CLOSE CAMPAIGN.
SATURDAY NIGHTSenator Davis Makes 13 Speeches
Today, Twelve Tomorrow, and Final Address at Bellington.

(Special by Scripps-McLae.)
Cumberland, Md., Nov. 3.—Senator Davis began his final round of speech-making this morning. He will deliver thirteen addresses before tonight. Twelve speeches are booked for tomorrow, closing at Bellington. He will make the final speech of the campaign at Bellington Saturday night, and then will return to Elkins to await the result of Tuesday's battle in ballots.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRES

The British steamer Haverford, from Philadelphia Oct. 22 for Liverpool, ran ashore on Durbo bank while entering the Mersey. The passengers were landed by a tug.

It is announced in St. Petersburg that the health of Prince Sviatopolk-Mirsky, the minister of the interior, which in recent years has not been robust, has been seriously impaired by overwork in connection with his new attempt.

An attempt made by anarchists to set fire to the palace of justice in Milan, Italy, early Monday was discovered in time to prevent serious damage. This has been followed by a similar attempt directed against the great palace in which the archives of state are preserved.

Kogoro Takahira, the Japanese minister, who was operated on for appendicitis last Sunday in New York, was reported much improved yesterday.

Emperor William yesterday unveiled groups of statues celebrating the chase which have been placed in the Thiergarten, the principal park of Berlin.

J. Ogden Armour of Chicago sailed for Europe yesterday on the steamer Baltic on his way to Vienna to bring home his daughter Lolita, who, he says, is practically cured.

Miss Christine Bradley, daughter of former Governor Bradley of Kentucky, who refused to christen the battleship Kentucky with champagne and used water, was married to Dr. John South of Frankfort last evening in Louisville.

STUDENTS VISIT
IN MANY CITIESClasses in Sociology and Charities
Are to Go to Milwaukee and Chicago.

(Special to The Gazette.)
Madison, Wis., Nov. 3.—The classes of sociology and charities and corrections of the University of Wisconsin will start November 10 on a sociology trip. They will visit Chicago and Milwaukee where they will study in a practical way the problems and conditions of the tenement houses and foreign districts, as well as the needs of reform adopted. The classes will be in charge of Prof. Jerome Dowd.

The dairy course of the university opens tomorrow. Fifty-three students registered yesterday and more are expected today. A new course will be offered this year, that of farm engineering under Assistant Professor J. N. Knapp. This study embraces rural architecture, sanitation, farm machinery, farm motors, pumps and water supply and fence and road construction.

M. Yoshimoto, formerly general manager agent of the Japanese government railways and at present imperial railway commissioner, is studying the American railway system at the university. He will spend the rest of the year in this country as he is guest of various railroad presidents, studying especially the Pennsylvania and New York Central systems.

REV. BARRINGTON
GIVING ADDRESSSpeaking to the Episcopal Convocation in Beloit as We Go To Press.

At the second session of the Convocation of Episcopal ministers being held in Beloit this afternoon at the St. Paul's church, Rev. A. H. Barrington of this city is delivering an address on the topic "Why People Fail to Support Missions." The meetings opened last evening with a sermon of Rev. M. J. Simpson of Baraboo.

MT. VESUVIUS IS IN ERUPTION NOWEven the City of Naples Feels the Force of the Violent Outbreak.

(Special by Scripps-McLae.)
Rome, Nov. 3.—Mt. Vesuvius is again in violent eruption. There is a heavy fall of ashes in Naples and the surrounding districts.

PARKER LEAVES
FOR CONNECTICUTPresidential Nominee Is To Make Several Addresses in the Nut Meg State.

(Special by Scripps-McLae.)
New York, Nov. 3.—Parker left New York at 10:15 this morning to make three speeches in Connecticut at Bridgeport, New Haven, and Hartford, returning to New York tomorrow morning. A committee of prominent Connecticut democrats met the nominee at the Grand Central station and will accompany him on his tour of the state.

Women Carry Tyrol Mail. Many of the rural letter carriers in the Tyrol are women.

MADISON JURY IS NOT DECIDED YETMan Killed by Train Met His Death by Accident, the Verdict.

(Special to The Gazette.)
Madison, Wis., Nov. 3.—The jury investigating into the death of Joseph Narey, who threw himself in front of a moving train and was instantly killed, returned a verdict that the deceased came to his death accidentally. Narey was a hard drinker and the supposition is that he imbibed liquor freely on the day of his death.

COUNTY BOARD TO MEET NOVEMBER 15Equalization Committee Is in Session This Afternoon—Valuations of Property Considered.

The equalization committee of the county board consisting of Chairman W. Zull of Johnston, L. E. Gettle of Edgerton, J. A. Paul of Milton Junction, W. W. Gilles of Evansville, W. F. Carle of Janesville, E. H. Hanson of Bradford, S. S. Jones of Clifton, G. H. Crosby of Turtle and L. W. Thompson of Beloit, is meeting today to equalize the valuations of the towns, cities, and villages of Rock county. The report will be made at the meetings of the board on November 15.

STATE NOTES

Mrs. Ellen Johnson was shot through the shoulder at Homestead Tuesday night by two hunters, who mistook her for a deer.

George McKernow, state superintendent of farmers' institutes, has announced that eighty-one institutes will be held this season, the number being reduced from 101 on account of lack of funds.

John Herms, said to have been the youngest soldier who went out from Racine, and perhaps in the state of Wisconsin, when the civil war broke out, died at Fort Thomas, Ky., on Wednesday, aged 67 years.

No trace has been found of little Willie Wilko of Sheboygan, who wandered from home in a delirium Sunday evening. All of the schools of the city were dismissed Wednesday morning and the pupils and teachers joined in an organized search for the missing boy.

The boys who placed an old telephone pole on the track of the Duck Creek car, at Green Bay, Monday night, as a Halloween prank, with the result that the car was wrecked, have been arrested. The boys are Anton Vanderbusch, Arthur LeFebvre, John Michinski, Louis Deterville and Emil Teller.

The North-Western Railway company has filed its answer at Madison in the suit brought against it by the attorney general ten days ago for a forfeit of $10,000 for alleged failure to pay part of its license fee last year. The company denies all the allegations in the complaint and asserts that it paid its entire fee.

Mrs. Mary McCutchen of Ashland has begun suit for $50,000 damages against Albert H. Powers of the logging, railroad and contracting firm of Powers & Simpson of Hibbing, Minn., in the United States circuit court of Duluth. She charges the defendant with ruining the character and health of her 21 year old daughter.

Resistance of Lancelwood. A piece of lancewood an inch square will stand a strain of 2,000 pounds before breaking.

NATION'S CHIEF
SUSTAINS FALLPresident Roosevelt Is Thrown From His Horse When the Animal Stumbled.

THE NEWS HAS BEEN SUPPRESSED

Story of the Accident Is Kept From the Public—Various Explanations Are Being Made.

Washington, Nov. 3.—A story explaining a mishap that recently befell President Roosevelt has received wide circulation. According to the story, the president was taking his usual canter on horseback along one of the country roads in Rock Creek park, a week ago last Sunday afternoon. His horse, Bismarck, while galloping at a sharp pace, is said to have stumbled and the president was thrown from the saddle.

It is known that on the following day when the president appeared at the executive offices he had a large and ugly looking bruise on his forehead and one or two minor bruises lower down on his face. These had obviously been treated by a surgeon.

Secretary Loeb Explains.

The presence of the bruises was variously explained by Secretary Loeb and others attached to the white house staff. According to one explanation Mr. Roosevelt had stumbled and fallen while playing tennis and sustained the cuts which appeared upon his face. Another explanation had it that the president, while riding through the country, had dismounted from his horse and attempted to climb a fence for the purpose of investigating something that had attracted his attention, that he slipped and that his face was scraped by one of the bars of the fence.

Story Is Carefully Suppressed. While the fact that he had been injured aroused a great deal of curiosity the additional fact that his mediate counselors were anxious to suppress all information regarding the accident served to prevent publication of even speculative stories. The president's friends evidently feared that the facts might be misunderstood and enlarged upon and for that reason they were very anxious that it should not be known.

The president himself came out of the mishap slightly jarred, with a considerable lump on the side of his head and the bruises or cuts which attracted so much attention from visitors at the white house and executive office. Otherwise he was all right and did not lose a moment from his multifarious official duties.

The accident, according to persons familiar with the facts, was one that could have overtaken any horseman under similar circumstances.

Rides Home Alone.

The most singular phase of it, however, was that at the moment it happened the president was alone. He had dismissed his attendants at a point beyond where it happened. After his fall, when he had risen to his feet, he found Bismarck, whose stumbling was responsible for the upsetting of the president, patiently waiting to be remounted.

The president vaulted back into the saddle and rode to the white house, where his injuries were attended by Dr. Riker.

President Roosevelt was disposed to make light of the whole affair, and it has not interfered with his frequent journeys into the country with Bismarck.

POPE'S CONDITION
IS NOT IMPROVEDAll Audiences for Today Have Been Canceled—Dr. Lapponi Issues Bulletin.

(Special by Scripps-McLae.)
Rome, Nov. 3.—Dr. Lapponi says that the condition of the Pope is not improved since yesterday. He will give no audiences today.

WHAT MT. HOREB
SAYS OF QUARLESRelative of Former Congressman
Dahle Writes of Senator
Quarles' Speech.

The following is an extract from a letter of Otto Dahle of Mt. Horeb, a relative of former Congressman Dahle who was turned down two years ago by the governor and deliberately sacrificed for present Congressman Adams:

Hon. J. Quarles spoke at the Mt. Horeb opera-house last night to the largest, most appreciative and attentive audience that has assembled in that hall. He spoke on national issues but devoted the greater part of two hours discussing state issues. Herman B. Dahler presided at the meeting and introduced the speaker.

NATION'S BAN ON CONSUMPTIVES

Victims of Phthisis to Be Refused Government Jobs Hereafter.

Washington, Nov. 3.—Hereafter no person suffering from consumption will be employed in the postoffice or other government positions from which they are likely to spread the disease. This decision has been reached by the civil service commission, and Commissioner Cooley has sent out an order that in future all applicants must submit to a physical examination.

HARD COAL MEN ARE TO STRIKE

Five Thousand Vote to Quit Work Unless Demand Is Granted.

Tamaqua, Pa., Nov. 3.—At a meeting of the miners employed at the Nesquehoning colliery of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation company the men voted to strike Friday unless the company would agree to reinstate five engineers, three firemen and a car runner, who were suspended because they remained away from work last Saturday to celebrate Mitchell day. A strike would involve 5,000 employees.

ROOSEVELT SENDS MESSAGE

(Special by Scripps-McLae.)
Washington, Nov. 3.—President Roosevelt this morning sent the following telegram to the president of the Panama Republic. "Accept the felicitations of this government on the first anniversary Panama independence."

PRINCE OF WALES
IS REPORTED ILLReports State That He Has Consumption—To Take Long Sea Voyage.

(Special by Scripps-McLae.)
London, Nov. 3.—Rumors that the Prince of Wales is in delicate health have been confirmed. The Prince's lungs are weak and the indications are of consumption. A consultation of physicians was held last week and a long sea trip was advised. The Prince will probably visit Portugal, Egypt, and possibly America.

STOPS LETTERS TO SLEUTHS

Fraud Order Issued by Government Against Detective Agencies.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 3.—Fraud orders have been issued against the Pinkerton United States Detective agency, the International Detective agency and the United States Pinkerton Detective agency by the postoffice department. Though these have ceased to exist by order of the United States district court, at least in name, there are daily many letters for them from far-off states.

HELEN GOULD QUEST OF HONOR

World's Fair Children Have Party on Model Playgrounds.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 3.—The World's Fair children had a party Wednesday, and Miss Helen Gould was their guest and hostess. Little bees from Jerusalem, the Philippines, Patagonia, Congo, China and Japan and all the other nations met and played and romped. The party was given at the model playgrounds at the fair, and Miss Gould was the most prominent of the limited number of "grown-ups" who attended. For each of the little girls she had a pretty dish, for each of the boys she had a wonderful bouncing ball, and for all of them she had a bright smile and a pleasant word.

HALLOWEEN LEADS TO SUICIDE

Man Who Shot at Party of Boys Kills Himself in Remorse.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 3.—A tragic sequel to a Halloween shooting occurred Wednesday when William Copeland, a contractor, took poison and died. Halloween night Mr. Copeland discharged his shotgun at a party of boys who had rattled his fence. Alex Schlupps received the charge of shot in his back and court proceedings were begun against Copeland as a result of the shooting. The matter preyed upon his mind so much that he committed suicide.

Elephants Sleep Little. The elephant in his prime sleeps only five hours a night, and the older the less sleep he needs.

AIRSHIP THAT SAILS IN SPACE

WONDERFUL INVENTION AT THE
ST. LOUIS EXPOSITION.

MADE TRIP ALONE LAST NIGHT

California Arrow Broke Away From Men Holding It, and Disappeared in the Clouds.

Sensational airship voyage. . . . .
St. Louis.—Baldwin's airship, "California Arrow," was caused by its commander, A. Roy Knabenshue, of Toledo, O., to perform a number of very remarkable evolutions during the trial of Tuesday afternoon. The wind was blowing from the north-west at the rate of ten miles an hour, rapidly increasing to eighteen; but in the teeth of the breeze the vessel moved easily back and forth and upwards over the exposition grounds and returned very nearly to the point from which it set out. Just as it had described in the air a huge figure eight for the second time the spark of the gasoline engine was raised a little too high and the motor ceased to work, the vessel being at the time about 600 feet above the Plaza of St. Anthony between the palaces of Transportation and Varied Industries.

But this accident only served to emphasize the triumph; for, even then, after the propelling apparatus could no longer be used and the machine was drifting on the wind, the airship was still able, simply by the shifting of his own weight and the manipulation of the rudder and the ballast, to turn the craft around, raise and lower it in the air, and to control, to considerable extent, the direction of its movement. Mr. Knabenshue decided just where it was best to land, and at 2:55 it sank down at Valley Junction, East St. Louis, and alighted without the slightest injury to either himself or the machine.

Could the motor have been used throughout the trip the landing would have been made without any difficulty, in the aeronautic grounds at the same point from which the ascension had taken place.

The ascent and evolutions were witnessed by thousands of exposition visitors, and greatest enthusiasm was aroused by the perfect success with which the apparatus was propelled in any desired direction, either with, across or against the wind, so long as the engine remained in order.

The California Arrow is the property of Captain T. S. Baldwin and has been constructed after his plans, representing the final outcome of thirty years of study and experimentation. It has a cigar-shaped bag of varnished Japanese silk, 52 feet long and 17 feet in diameter, with a capacity of 8,000 cubic feet. On the upper surface and at the ends of the silk is doubled, and at the points of greatest strain tried. The car, forty feet long, is a light framework of white cedar braced with piano wire. It is, in section, a perfect equilateral triangle, so that the whole is the shape of a right prism, save that it grows smaller and smaller towards the ends. It is pulled through the air by a two-bladed silk propeller, eleven feet from tip to tip, set at an angle of twenty degrees at the front end of the car. The draught of air caused by its 200 revolutions a minute serves to prevent explosions by constantly cooling the Hercules gasoline engine set about eight feet from the forward end of the car. The engine weighs only 66 pounds, but performs 2,600 revolutions a minute and has a working capacity of seven horse power. The aeronaut has a seat and conning platform about twelve or thirteen feet further back, and he can move from one end to the other of the car by means of a change of position of less than two feet is sufficient to cause the craft to ascend or descend in the air by raising or lowering the elevation of the beam. At the rear there is a rudder of six feet by ten made of light canvas stretched on a bamboo frame. The total weight of the whole apparatus is only about 220 pounds. The maximum speed thus far attained, by means of its own engines, not taking the wind into account, is twelve miles an hour, but the usual rate is only about eight miles an hour.

The successive, achieved—confirming the sensational reports of previous trials made at Oakland, Cal.—is all the more remarkable in view of the fact that the meteorological conditions were peculiarly unfavorable, owing to the strong and shifty winds and the intermingling currents of air of different temperatures, causing a constantly varying pressure of the gas. Moreover the California Arrow is little more than a small and cheaply-built working-model. With a well-made engine and thoroughly up-to-date carburetor, such as those with which one of the larger Baldwin airships, now at Los Angeles, Cal., is being equipped, such accidents as that of yesterday will no longer be liable to occur.

The Baldwin airship will henceforth make ascensions here every two or three days, when the weather is pleasant, until the end of November, performing all sorts of evolutions above the exposition grounds, and making trips to neighboring towns. It is acknowledged by the exposition authorities to have fully qualified for a place among the contestants for the $100,000 prize, which will be hotly disputed during the great aeronautic contests of November. Three other dirigible balloons, the Benbow, Francois and Reynolds, of much larger size and entirely different patterns, are already here and will begin to make ascensions as soon as the gas-generating plant is working order, which will probably be the first of next week. The Baldwin airship will not wait for that time, but will continue generating its own hydrogen gas by the vitriol method.

Besides the dirigible balloons the Avery aeroplane is to make trial flights daily, morning and afternoon, from this time forward, in the Plaza of St. Louis, and the Baden-Powell man-lifting kite is to be operated a little later on, so that the air of St. Louis will be more abundantly and diversely navigated during the coming five weeks than that of any part of the world has ever been in an equal space of time.

Substantial evidence of the real dirigibility of a properly-constructed aerial craft, even under diverse conditions, have already been furnished, and Mr. Baldwin himself recognized that some of his rivals have hit upon principles of which he has never made use, that, are nothing less than epoch-making contributions to the aeronautic art.

It is extremely probable that the demonstrations now being made at the World's Fair will mark the beginning of a new epoch of serious and practical aerial navigation. The pioneers in this field suffer great disadvantages from the difficulty of getting competent workmen, and the necessity of putting up with relatively crude and unsatisfactory mechanical appliances. As the mechanism is perfected, through the lessons of experience and by the subventions sure to come from the great moneyed interests when the business value of the idea and the entire feasibility of its practical application shall have been generally recognized, the airship will become more and more safe and efficient, and will pass rapidly from the position of a scientific toy and popular wonder to that of a useful means of transportation. Yesterday afternoon this machine took a flight by itself and has not yet been found.

If you enjoy mullins and waffles, try Mrs. Austin's Pancake Flour and you will be delighted with results.

towns. It is acknowledged by the exposition authorities to have fully qualified for a place among the contestants for the $100,000 prize, which will be hotly disputed during the great aeronautic contests of November. Three other dirigible balloons, the Benbow, Francois and Reynolds, of much larger size and entirely different patterns, are already here and will begin to make ascensions as soon as the gas-generating plant is working order, which will probably be the first of next week. The Baldwin airship will not wait for that time, but will continue generating its own hydrogen gas by the vitriol method.

Besides the dirigible balloons the Avery aeroplane is to make trial flights daily, morning and afternoon, from this time forward, in the Plaza of St. Louis, and the Baden-Powell man-lifting kite is to be operated a little later on, so that the air of St. Louis will be more abundantly and diversely navigated during the coming five weeks than that of any part of the world has ever been in an equal space of time.

Substantial evidence of the real dirigibility of a properly-constructed aerial craft, even under diverse conditions, have already been furnished, and Mr. Baldwin himself recognized that some of his rivals have hit upon principles of which he has never made use, that, are nothing less than epoch-making contributions to the aeronautic art.

It is extremely probable that the demonstrations now being made at the World's Fair will mark the beginning of a new epoch of serious and practical aerial navigation. The pioneers in this field suffer great disadvantages from the difficulty of getting competent workmen, and the necessity of putting up with relatively crude and unsatisfactory mechanical appliances. As the mechanism is perfected, through the lessons of experience and by the subventions sure to come from the great moneyed interests when the business value of the idea and the entire feasibility of its practical application shall have been generally recognized, the airship will become more and more safe and efficient, and will pass rapidly from the position of a scientific toy and popular wonder to that of a useful means of transportation. Yesterday afternoon this machine took a flight by itself and has not yet been found.

If you enjoy mullins and waffles, try Mrs. Austin's Pancake Flour and you will be delighted with results.

BELOIT TEAM HAS BEEN DISBANDED

Too Many Players Failed in Studies,
Hence Superintendent Converse Takes Such Action.

It is not definitely known yet but Janesville may still have a chance for the state interscholastic football championship this season. The Beloit team which defeated the locals has been disbanded by order of Supt. Converse because so many players failed in their studies. This act makes the chance for the Beloit team a very slim one. It has ever or will for some time have of winning first in the state. Thus far the team has won all games, twice defeating Freeport high, winning from Beloit Academy, being victorious over Evansville, and wiping the ground with the locals.

Public Speakers Use Placard to strengthen the voice and prevent harassment.

RELATIVE'S DEATH CALLS THEM AWAY

Mr. and Mrs. Brunson Go to Kings,
Illinois, on Account of Demise of Mrs. Brunson's Aunt.

Word was received by Mr. O. P. Brunson last evening that Mrs. Charlotte Linn of Kings, Illinois, had passed away at her home in that city, of infirmities of old age. Mrs. Linn was an aunt of Mrs. Brunson and for a number of years before Mr. and Mrs. Brunson were united in marriage, she made her home with Mrs. Linn. Besides Mrs. Brunson there is left to mourn: a son, Mr. George Linn of Kings, a daughter, Mrs. Cogswell of Davis Junction, and several grand and great-grandchildren. Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon and the relatives from this city will return Saturday. They left at 2:15 this afternoon.

Mrs. Austin's Pancake Flour enjoys the largest sale of any similar article. Ask your grocer today.

WEDDING CEREMONY LAST EVENING

Miss Effie Cowan Married to Charles
F. Masterson at Masterson
Home, Dickson Street.

At the home of John Masterson, 4 Dickson street, last evening, Miss Effie Cowan and Charles F. Masterson were united in marriage at 7:30 o'clock by Rev. T. H. Tippet. Following the ceremony a splendid wedding supper was served to the family and friends and the couple left on the night train for Neillsville, Wisconsin.

A CHINA SHOWER GIVEN FOR MISS KITTIE RYAN

At the home of Mrs. James Sennett—Evening Proved Delightful One.
Girl friends of Miss Kittie Ryan who is soon to be a bride, gathered at the home of her aunt, Mrs. James Sennett, last evening to participate in a china shower. A delicious supper was served at eight and music and games followed. Miss Ryan was the recipient of many beautiful gifts.

Buy it in Janesville

NU-TRI-OLA

PECK APPEARS TO BE ON THE GAIN

ADVICES FROM ALL OVER STATE
POINT THAT WAY.

LA FOLLETTE IS WORRIED

Has Lost Votes on His Recent Trip Through Walworth, Rock and Dane,

(By Staff Correspondent.)

Milwaukee, Nov. 3.—Democratic State Chairman Warden makes the official announcement today that Peck will carry Wisconsin by a small majority. This idea seems prevalent throughout the state. It is stated authoritatively that Wood county, the governor's strongest camping ground, will go against him. Rock, Dane, Walworth, Kenosha, Dane, and Milwaukee counties are also reported as in the list to give Peck a majority. The governor has not made votes in his recent addresses in Rock, Dane or Walworth counties. It is the statement of men who claim superior knowledge of matters political. The fact that Senator Spooner is to take the stump for the national ticket on Saturday night next is sufficient warrant to start the story that the national committee fear for the safety of the Roosevelt ticket and need his services. The governor is to complete his tirade of abuse in which he attacks all Republicans who oppose him and neglects national issues entirely, Friday night.

Quarles Eloquent

Senator Quarles spoke last evening on the south side in Milwaukee to a large and enthusiastic audience. He showed the evils of factionalism and his appeal was eloquent. He declared in no measured terms that the object of the governor was to perpetuate his personal machine in the state. He tore the administration to pieces and clearly demonstrated that the men at its head were unfit for public service. The governor in a speech at Delavan yesterday practically admitted that the state treasury was empty, but said he was not to blame. In Dane county the La Follette leaders have become desperate. At a meeting at McFarland last night several of them tried to break up the meeting conducted by Prof. Olland but failed. At Baraboo high school boys were hired to hiss M. G. Jeffris in his address but were equally unsuccessful. All over the state the La Follette managers have telegraphed their chief to come to their county to help stay the tide that is against him, stronger and stronger each day. As far as possible the appeal is listened to but the governor is himself worn out and discouraged. He now places his plurality at ten thousand where ten days ago he claimed every thousand and he is losing every day.

Peck's Chances

Ex-Governor Peck spoke yesterday at Darlington. He was enthusiastically greeted. During the meeting forty old soldiers pledged him their support at the coming election. The ex-governor was met at the depot by a brass band, the entire city fire department, and the veterans of the G. A. R. At Monroe six hundred people crowded to the depot to greet him and at Brodhead five hundred paid him honor. As the result of the governor's speech in Beloit last Tuesday night it is now claimed that the Line City will give Peck a majority, republicans and democrats turning in a chance to rebuke the governor for his attack upon Whitehead and the assemblymen. At Tony comes the report that Peck will have the solid vote.

Against Governor

At Cumberland last night State Attorney General Sturdevant spoke before a cold and unresponsive audience. Chairman A. F. Warden of the democratic state central committee made a sharp attack upon what he calls the extravagance, the corruption, and the hypocrisy of Gov. La Follette's administration in a statement which he issued yesterday. The "Address to Wisconsin Voters" says, in part:
Under the administration of Gov. La Follette there has been unparalleled extravagance in every department of state government. The expenditures are double what they were under the administration of Gov. Peck. To be exact, the expenditures for the last two years that George W. Peck was governor and the democrats had control of the legislature amounted to $3,498,331. The expenditures of the La Follette administration in the years 1903-04 amount up to the total sum of $5,014,727. In the one item of protecting the wild game and fish of the state the La Follette administration has spent $250,000 more than was expended in Peck's administration, the record showing that during the four years of Gov. Peck's administration $11,762.34 was spent in game protection, as compared with $262,587.83 squandered by the La Follette administration in three years and nine months of its incumbency in office.

The present administration rests its appeal to the people upon its professed hostility to corporate interests. Its campaign has degenerated into a campaign of slander and vilification. Though it reeks with corruption, though it has wasted the people's money, neglected its official duties to engage in political intrigue, and has saddled upon the taxpayers a corrupt and odious aggregation of political shysters and heelers, it has no defense to offer other than to charge that its critics and opponents have been debauched by the public service corporations. No man is secure from its slander or exempt from its venom. Men of the highest character, of unimpeachable integrity and unquestioned honor are assailed as chaffs of the railways. Democrats that are faithful to their organization are branded as puppets of the railway faction, and are accused of having trafficked their independence, their manhood, and their honor upon no other evidence than that they decline to desert their party or betray it into the hands of its enemies. This mad appeal to prejudice and passion, this foul outpouring of venom and hatred has failed of its purpose. The great majority of the electors are intelligent. They have had opportunity to compare the performance of the present administration with its promises. Its inconsistency, its hypocrisy, its insincerity, and its false pretenses and lying accusations are too transparent to enable it to deceive the intelligent and unprejudiced electors of Wisconsin.

Mr. Warden concludes the statement with a declaration that the democratic victory in the state is now assured.

...LINK AND PIN...

News for the Railroad Men.

Joe Shekey will return to work tomorrow on switch engine 1042.

G. F. Miller is laying off for a few days.

C. B. Smith is off duty for several days, being relieved by Fireman E. J. Grisel.

Fireman F. H. Strom is off for a few days.

Traveling Engineer G. W. Williams of Baraboo is in the city today on business.

Several of the men from the roundhouse went to Baraboo yesterday to hear M. G. Jeffris speak. They were: Foreman T. Erickson, Clerk L. P. Matthews, Engineer Joe Shekey, Engineer Charles Manning, and M. A. Crowley.

Engineer D. H. Dunwiddle and Fireman J. J. Russell went to Harvard this morning to relieve an engine crew.

Traffic Prospects Good.

Increased tonnage in high class and general freight more than offsets the decrease in grain and meat shipments on the railroads running east of Chicago. These roads report that all local industries are running at greater capacity, using more raw material and shipping more products. All the roads say they could use more cars, but that there is no serious shortage yet. Grain shipments East, from Chicago last week were 1,485,000 bushels, a decrease of 16,000 bushels from two previous weeks and of 278,000 bushels from the corresponding week of last year. Flour shipments last week were 85,462 barrels, an increase of 9,462 barrels for the week. Shipments of packing-house products were 26,227 tons, a decrease of 1,251 tons from the preceding week. Western roads did not show any gains in traffic last week, the increase in general freight being about equivalent to the decrease in grain shipments. The grain traffic was the lightest of any week in the past ten years. New corn will soon begin to move freely, and result in a good increase in earnings, traffic managers believe. The western roads brought to Chicago last week only 3,657,000 bushels of grain, less than half as much as they carried the same week of last year.

Electricity Supercedes Steam.

The Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company has closed a contract with the Pennsylvania railroad to equip the entire Long Island and railroad system with electric motors and steam locomotives will be ultimately abandoned. The initial contract on which work has been begun at East Pittsburgh is for 122 cars, each of which will be equipped with four motors of 125 horse power. These will be placed under the traction car which will haul a train of passenger cars of the customary length. Many of the present baggage cars will be equipped with motors. The new cars will be running in the spring and will be used exclusively on the excursion trains next summer to Rockaway beach and other points.

Electric Engines Speedy.

The big electrical locomotive built for the New York Central railway company was taken out to the Hoffman's four mile race course, equipped with the third rail recently and without coaches, attained a speed of seventy miles an hour. With eight coaches the locomotive reached a speed of fifty-five miles an hour. It sixty-three seconds after the lever had reached the first notch on the controller in starting the locomotive showed that the machine had attained a speed of thirty-five miles, and increased at a rate of five miles every thirty seconds. In a race with a New York Central limited on a second track at this point the electric locomotive easily beat the steam propelled train on the four mile run.

Coal Strike Hurts Railroads.

The strike in the soft coal regions is causing a big loss to the Eastern Illinois, Alton, Hannibal Central, and Burlington railroads. The Eastern Illinois is the heaviest carrier of soft coal, handling on an average 2,500 carloads a week. Railroad men say if the strike in the soft coal region is of prolonged duration it will have greater effect in this section of the West than did the strike in the anthracite district two years ago.

THE REAL TEST

Of Herpelde is in giving it a thorough trial.

There is only one test by which to judge of the efficiency of any article and that is by its ability to do that which it is intended to do. Many hair vipers may look nice and smooth, but the point is—do they eradicate dandruff and stop falling hair?

No, they do not, but Herpelde does, because it goes to the root of the evil and kills the germ that causes the papilla from whence the hair gets its life.

Letters from prominent people everywhere are daily proving that Herpelde stands the "test of use."

It is a delightful dressing, clear, pure and free from oil or grease.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpelde Co., Detroit, Mich.

People's Drug Co. and King's Pharmacy, Special Agents.

Myers Grand Opera House

PETER L. MYERS, Manager.
Telephone 609

THURSDAY, NOV. 4

20th Semi-Annual Tour

The Often Initiated, but Never Equaled

LYMAN H. HOWE

Will present

America's Greatest

Exhibition of Moving Pictures

See the Great Life Boat Series

See the Russo Jap. War Scenes.

See the St. Louis Exposition.

See the Thrilling War Scenes.

See the Trip Through Italy.

And 30 Other Great Scenes.

PRICES—25, 35 and 50c. Seats on sale at ticket office, Wednesday,

Nov. 2, at 9 o'clock.

GOOD TEETH.

NO PLATES

REQUIRED

Full sets teeth on rubber, $7.00

Gold crowns, 22-kt., 5.00

Bridge work, per tooth, 5.00

Gold filling, 1.00

Silver filling, .75

Cement filling, .50

As for the quality of work at the above scale of prices, hundreds of testimonials on file in our office will bear witness. We have an up-to-date dental equipment and every facility that modern science will supply.

WHITCOMB DENTAL PARLORS.

Suite 304 Jackson Bldg. Both 'Phones

BARGAINS

Don't stir a step until you read this

Any man who expects to continue wearing clothes can not afford to turn his back on this great sale at Janesville's greatest man's store.

These prices for Election week only,
Nov. 1st to 5th.

Suits

AND

Overcoats

Regular price... $25.00

Election Sale price $18.50

Regular price... $20.00

Election Sale price $15.50

Regular price... $17.50

Election Sale price $14.00

Regular price... $15.00

Election Sale price $10.50

Regular price... $12.00

Election Sale price $8.50

Regular price... $10.00

Election Sale price $7.50

PANTS

Special for this Sale

$1.00 per pair

off regular marked price.

Any Hat

in the store for $2.00

this sale only.

New Neckwear

Wednesday for this sale.

Choice of 50c goods,

25c.

$1.00 Ties, 50c.

J. L.

FORD & SON

Don't Let the First
Cold Snap Catch You

Without a good supply of coal. Better not, when you can fill your bin NOW with our coal at $8.75 per ton.

Badger Coal Co.

Office: 103 North Academy St.

Both Phones 76.

PURE AND SPARKLING IS

BUOB'S

Star

Export Beer.

ORDER BY 'PHONE, NOS. 141

SWEET KRAUT.

Something new in the candy line.

MARSHMELLOWS

20c a pound

ASSORTED PATIES

20c a pound

FRESH BITTER SWEETS.

Best in the city

Ice Cream, fresh daily. Telephone orders delivered. We will continue to make ice cream all through the winter

Janesville Candy Kitchen

157 W. Milwaukee St.

Phone 856

Monuments at Cost

Closing out sale of a large stock of the very best granite monuments and markers at a sacrifice. Any style of stone with lettering to suit purchaser at a COST PRICE.

MRS. F. A. BENNETT.

INFORMATION FOR VOTERS

Remember, there are two ballots to be voted for this Election: (1) The National, State, Congressional, Senatorial, Legislative and County Ticket. (2) The Primary Election Law Question.

HOW TO VOTE ON THE U. S. STANDARD VOTING MACHINE.

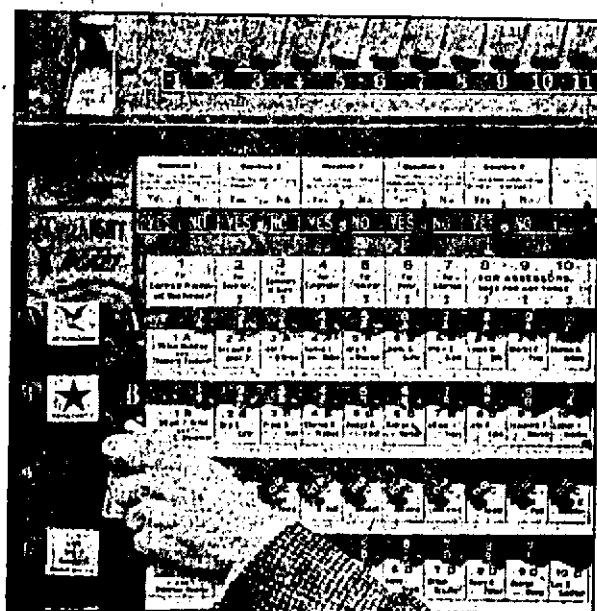

Move the Red Handle of the Curtain Lever to the right as far as it will go. This will close the Curtain around you, and unlock the machine for voting.

VOTER ABOUT TO CLOSE THE CURTAIN.

HOW TO VOTE A STRAIGHT TICKET.

Having closed the Curtain—Pull the Party Lever bearing the name or emblem of your Party over to the right UNTIL THE BELL RINGS, and then let it go back. This turns down all of the Pointers of your party to a voting position.

VOTER PULLING OVER PARTY LEVER.

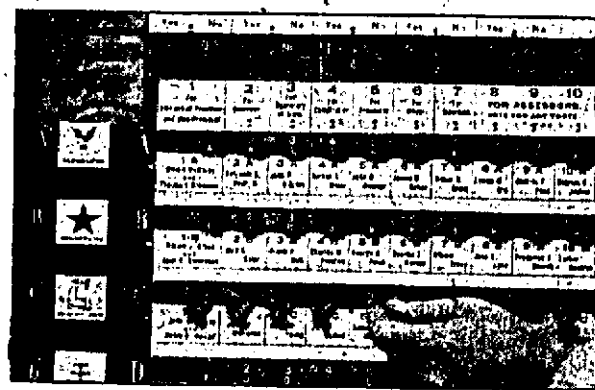

Leave the Pointers as they are (down in a voting position). Move the Red Handle of the Curtain Lever to the left as far as it will go.

This will count your vote, open the Curtain, and set the machine for the next voter.

HOW TO VOTE A SPLIT TICKET.

Having closed the Curtain—Pull the Party Lever bearing the name or emblem of your Party over to the right UNTIL THE BELL RINGS, and then let it go back. This turns down all of the Pointers of your party to a voting position.

Turn back (up) the Pointer from over the name of the candidate you wish to cut. See illustration below.

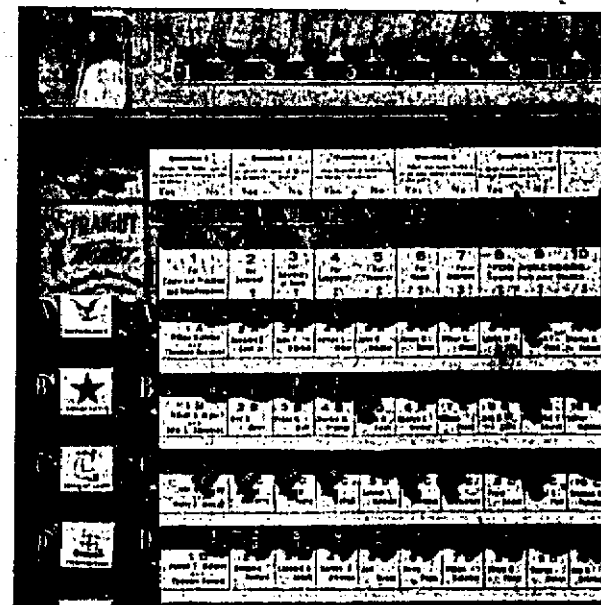

And then turn down a Pointer over the name of the candidate you wish to vote for for that office. See illustration below.

Be sure to complete each Split before making another. For an office to which two or more candidates are to be elected, the given number can be voted for, regardless of position. After the vote is arranged, move the Red Handle of the Curtain Lever to the left as far as it will go. This will count one vote for every candidate that has a Pointer left down over his name.

HOW TO VOTE ON QUESTIONS.

To vote Yes, turn the Question Pointer to the word Yes, and leave it there. To vote No, turn the Question Pointer to the word No, and leave it there.

THE ABOVE CUT SHOWS:

That the voter has voted Party Lever "C" and then—Split his vote for Treasurer, on Column 5. That he has voted for Assessors, voting for three on Column 9 (for which office he is permitted to vote for any three candidates on either of the Columns, 8, 9, and 10). That he has voted "Yes" on Questions 1 and 2. That he has not voted on Question 3. That he has voted "No" on Question 4. If the voter desires, he may make any further changes while the Curtain remains closed, as the vote is not registered until the Curtain is opened. The Pointers must be left down over the names to be voted for. If the voter turns them back the vote will not be counted, as the opening of the Curtain turns back the Pointers and counts the vote.

GAZETTE WANT ADS.

contribute to your personal independence. You do not, in these days, have to burden your friends with the fact that you need employment.

Three lines three times 25c

WANT ADS.

MRS. E. McCarthy, 238 W. Milwaukee street, will furnish help at short notice. She also has places for girls looking for a good home, construction and clean. New phone No. 915, old phone 4122.

WANTED—AT ONCE—200 lbs. clean white wigs. Inquire at 121 Madison St.

WANTED—Bring in your overcoat and have it cleaned or dyed. It will look like new. Chemical Dry Cleaning Co., 1000 Wisconsin St.

WANTED—A place for a willing girl to work for board and to school in the Third ward. Address N. M. Glatz.

WANTED—Small house or 5 or 6 convenient rooms for housekeeping. Young man and wife, no children, quiet, neat. Address John Quilley, care Gazette Office.

WANTED—Men to learn barber trade. Few weeks completes by our method. C. N. earn expenses before completing. $15 weekly paid graduates. Special inducements to old applicants. Write for catalogue today. Moler Barber College, Chicago, Ill.

WANTED—Girl to assist with general housework. Inquire of Mrs. J. P. Engle, 10 Harrison St.

WANTED—Man on farm for one month. Call for address. W. T. Sherman, town of La Prairie, R. F. D. No. 3.

WANTED—A place for a competent male house cook; also places for a few experienced girls for day or week work. Mrs. B. White, Highland Home, 105 East Milwaukee street.

WANTED—A woman capable of keeping short hand and operate a typewriter. State experience and salary expected. Address V. care of Gazette.

FOR RENT

FOR RENT—Rooms for office purposes, corner Milwaukee and Main Sts. Inquire of F. H. Snyder.

FOR RENT—Furnished rooms. 51 Milton avenue.

FOR RENT—Modern steam heated flat and store in New Franklin block on Jackson street. Inquire S. D. Gribble's clothing store.

FOR RENT—Furnished or unfurnished furnished heated rooms; also bath for rent. Call at 211 Glen street.

FOR RENT—Steam heated flat, centrally located. Apply to F. H. Snyder, cor. Main and Milwaukee Sts.

FOR RENT—Room in house; soft and hard water. Inquire at 163 N. Hickory street. New phone 618.

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Small roll top oak office desk. No. 3. Inquire at 121 Madison St.

FOR SALE—Coal heater, wardrobe, and parlor set. Inquire at 121 Madison St.

FOR SALE—Radiant heated coal heater and 22 in. frame wheel. Inquire at No. 5 Jefferson St.

FOR SALE—Furniture and laundry, will sell cheap. If you party call at once. Address F. Springer, Grandville, Wis.

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Part of a house suitable for a kitchen; also log cabin. Inquire of Dr. Michaelis, 20 Milwaukee avenue.

FOR SALE—A new Singer sewing machine, 12 in. cabinet, also log cabin. Inquire of Dr. Michaelis, 20 Milwaukee avenue.

FOR SALE—A new Singer sewing machine, 12 in. cabinet, also log cabin. Inquire of Dr. Michaelis, 20 Milwaukee avenue.

FOR SALE—A new Singer sewing machine, 12 in. cabinet, also log cabin. Inquire of Dr. Michaelis, 20 Milwaukee avenue.

FOR SALE—A new Singer sewing machine, 12 in. cabinet, also log cabin. Inquire of Dr. Michaelis, 20 Milwaukee avenue.

FOR SALE—A new Singer sewing machine, 12 in. cabinet, also log cabin. Inquire of Dr. Michaelis, 20 Milwaukee avenue.

FOR SALE—A new Singer sewing machine, 12 in. cabinet, also log cabin. Inquire of Dr. Michaelis, 20 Milwaukee avenue.

FOR SALE—A new Singer sewing machine, 12 in. cabinet, also log cabin. Inquire of Dr. Michaelis, 20 Milwaukee avenue.

FOR SALE—A new Singer sewing machine, 12 in. cabinet, also log cabin. Inquire of Dr. Michaelis, 20 Milwaukee avenue.

FOR SALE—A new Singer sewing machine, 12 in. cabinet, also log cabin. Inquire of Dr. Michaelis, 20 Milwaukee avenue.

FOR SALE—A new Singer sewing machine, 12 in. cabinet, also log cabin. Inquire of Dr. Michaelis, 20 Milwaukee avenue.

FOR SALE—A new Singer sewing machine, 12 in. cabinet, also log cabin. Inquire of Dr. Michaelis, 20 Milwaukee avenue.

FOR SALE—A new Singer sewing machine, 12 in. cabinet, also log cabin. Inquire of Dr. Michaelis, 20 Milwaukee avenue.

FOR SALE—A new Singer sewing machine, 12 in. cabinet, also log cabin. Inquire of Dr. Michaelis, 20 Milwaukee avenue.

FOR SALE—A new Singer sewing machine, 12 in. cabinet, also log cabin. Inquire of Dr. Michaelis, 20 Milwaukee avenue.

FOR SALE—A new Singer sewing machine, 12 in. cabinet, also log cabin. Inquire of Dr. Michaelis, 20 Milwaukee avenue.

FOR SALE—A new Singer sewing machine, 12 in. cabinet, also log cabin. Inquire of Dr. Michaelis, 20 Milwaukee avenue.

FOR SALE—A new Singer sewing machine, 12 in. cabinet, also log cabin. Inquire of Dr. Michaelis, 20 Milwaukee avenue.

FOR SALE—A new Singer sewing machine, 12 in. cabinet, also log cabin. Inquire of Dr. Michaelis, 20 Milwaukee avenue.

FOR SALE—A new Singer sewing machine, 12 in. cabinet, also log cabin. Inquire of Dr. Michaelis, 20 Milwaukee avenue.

FOR SALE—A new Singer sewing machine, 12 in. cabinet, also log cabin. Inquire of Dr. Michaelis, 20 Milwaukee avenue.

FOR SALE—A new Singer sewing machine, 12 in. cabinet, also log cabin. Inquire of Dr. Michaelis, 20 Milwaukee avenue.

FOR SALE—A new Singer sewing machine, 12 in. cabinet, also log cabin. Inquire of Dr. Michaelis, 20 Milwaukee avenue.

FOR SALE—A new Singer sewing machine, 12 in. cabinet, also log cabin. Inquire of Dr. Michaelis, 20 Milwaukee avenue.

FOR SALE—A new Singer sewing machine, 12 in. cabinet, also log cabin. Inquire of Dr. Michaelis, 20 Milwaukee avenue.

FOR SALE—A new Singer sewing machine, 12 in. cabinet, also log cabin. Inquire of Dr. Michaelis, 20 Milwaukee avenue.

FOR SALE—A new Singer sewing machine, 12 in. cabinet, also log cabin. Inquire of Dr. Michaelis, 20 Milwaukee avenue.

FOR SALE—A new Singer sewing machine, 12 in. cabinet, also log cabin. Inquire of Dr. Michaelis, 20 Milwaukee avenue.

...Forty Years Ago...

Janesville Daily Gazette, Thursday, November 3, 1864.—To the Unregistered.—Doubtless there are some who, from absence from the city or other valid reasons, have failed to procure the registration of their names, as required by law in order to entitle them to vote, but any such should bear in mind that they are not thereby stopped from voting as the law provides that by making the affidavit themselves of their fitness to vote, and obtaining the affidavit of a householder as to their identity, they may cast their ballot even though their name be not registered. Let those who are not registered bring with them a householder when they present themselves at the polls, so they need have no trouble and cause no unnecessary delay by being obliged to hunt one up.

An election so fraught with momentous consequences was never before held, as the one which transpired on Tuesday next, and no man who loves his country should let anything but utter impossibilities prevent him from exercising a freeman's prerogatives at the ballot box.

Still Going Forward.—A large number of men went through here yesterday enroute for the front. They were recruits, we understand, for several regiments in the field.

Severe Frost.—We had one of the severest frosts of the season last night. The ground in some places was frozen quite hard.

Reporting.—Some fifty drafted men from Dane county reported at the Provost Marshal's office today. In connection we would state that there is now a deficiency on the towns of this district of only about fifty, while the district at large has a surplus of some 700. Will the News make a note of the way in which men run away from the draft in such strong Union districts as this.

Coming Attractions.

An Important Engagement.

The announcement of the appearance of the Lyman H. Howe Moving Picture Co. in Janesville tonight, is an important one. The company comes with a splendid reputation for superior excellence that is not only national, but rapidly becoming international. It is a program unique for mystery, variety, interest and amusement. The spirit of the times is conveyed in every picture displayed. The world is merrier for parting in an evening's entertainment so crowded with geniality and gaiety. It thaws the flint, melts the misanthropic, enraptures the children. Lyman H. Howe has made his exhibition the exponent of all that is brilliant and masterful. His pride centers in pleasing his patrons. They are the vital elements that have sustained him. It is worth your while to realize the importance of making an early selection of seats.

War Department Estimates.

Washington, Nov. 3.—The estimates of the war department for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1906, aggregate $103,686,780. This is $22,212,612 less than the war department estimate submitted a year ago, and $3,832,386 less than the total appropriation this year.

Guest Kills Hotel Man.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 3.—A quarrel over a receipt for the payment of a board bill resulted in the killing of Hayden Y. Loring, manager of the Loring hotel near the exposition grounds, by Norman M. Vaughan, manager of the Elks Publishing company.

Russia to Accept Passports.

Washington, Nov. 3.—The state department has received a cablegram from the American embassy at St. Petersburg which warrants the assumption that the Russian government will soon recognize passports of American Jews traveling in Russia.

Actors Are Poisoned.

New York, Nov. 3.—Two persons who ate part of a poisoned pudding sent to a theatrical boarding-house in West Forty-third street are dying in Roosevelt hospital, while a third is in a critical condition.

Grand Secretary at Death's Door.

Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Nov. 3.—W. J. Maxwell, grand secretary of the Order of Railway Conductors, was stricken with paralysis Wednesday. His condition is serious.

Often The Kidneys Are

Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood. It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work. Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root; the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

Get a sample bottle. Some of Swamp-Root, by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

STOGIES MADE OF WISCONSIN LEAF

1903 Crop Is Being Shipped to Con-

corns in Ohio and Pennsylvania. Manufacturing Cheap Cigars. Stogies and cheroots, supposedly made of Virginia or Carolina leaf, that some smokers "prefer" to Havana cigars, are manufactured largely from Wisconsin tobacco. Hundreds of cars of the last year's crop have been shipped into the manufacturing districts of Ohio and Pennsylvania during the last few months. Much of the tobacco is shipped to the factories in the bundle or laid loosely in the cases and the cheapness of the stock at the present has been a great incentive for manufacturers to lay aside some for tobacco use.

One of the surprising things of the tobacco trade recently has been the magnitude of the outlet for the cheaper grades of the 1903 crop, which has led to a steady lifting of the remnants remaining in country usually active, furnishing a market for fillers and the damaged portion bands. The strippers have been unable to handle all of the crop, but aside from this there has been a good demand for the slightly better grades.

Doubtless the most desirable portion of the crop has been sold, for recently contracts for the sale of several hundred acres of the new have been transferred by the local dealers of the state to the larger manufacturers. The buyers of these firms have been in the growing dis- will much of the time have been willing to pay local dealers an advance upon contracts secured and seem to consider this way of securing tobacco better than to continue to hunt in the country.

Just what margins these fortunate dealers have been able to obtain over the original price to be paid the grower is not made public, but it is believed to be close to an average profit made in carrying a packing through the sweat; besides, it relieves the local packer of any of the chances usually assumed.

JANESVILLE MARKET REPORT

Quotations on Grain and Produce Reported for the Gazette.

REMOVED BY F. A. SPOON & SONS, Oct. 28, 1904.

Flour—1st Pat. $1.00 to $1.05; 2nd Pat. $1.00 to $1.05 per sack.

Winter wheat flour $1.00 to $1.05.

Wheat—No. 3 winter $1.00 to $1.05.

By sample, at 75¢ per bu.

Barley—Extra 18¢; fair to good, 16¢ to 17¢; mostly extra and feed, 15¢ to 16¢.

Corn—Bar old per bu. $1.00 to $1.05; new, 10¢ to 15¢ per bu.

Oats—No. 3 white, 20¢ to 25¢; fair, 17¢ to 18¢; clover seed, $7.00 to $7.50 per bu.

Timothy seed—Holland $1.00 to $1.05; white $1.00 to $1.05.

Feed—Pure corn and oats, $2.00 to $2.50 per ton.

Hay—100 lbs. in 200 lb. sacks per ton.

Good hay, $25.00 to $30.00; standard middling, $20.00 to $25.00.

Hay—100 lbs. in 200 lb. sacks per ton.

Good hay, $25.00 to $30.00; standard middling, $20.00 to $25.00.

Hay—100 lbs. in 200 lb. sacks per ton.

Children's Coats... Special at $5.00

Sizes to fit from six to fourteen years, about fifty coats in the lot such as would regularly be $6 to $8, every one of this season's make with capes and belts and all on sale $5.00 now at a choice for... Other coats for children from $3 up.

Tourist Coats for Ladies and Misses

We are having a great sale of these popular garments. We have the assortment that pleases, of the nobly mixtures which are the proper thing today. The prices on them are not high, as good coats with epaulet shoulders, belted backs are to be had at $7.50, with others at $8.50, $10, $11, $12, $13, $14, $15. Have also nobby coats short coats for missus, fitted or full backs, $5 to $12.

New Tailored Suits

of a splendid quality of suiting broadcloth, length of coat is 32 inches, collar and cuffs trimmed with velvet, made both in fitted or loose back and full satin lined. Skirt has twelve gores and open pleats. Colors, black, navy and brown, sizes, 32 to 42, special at $15.00.

Simpson
DRY GOODS

After Exposure

to snow or rain a cold comes.

Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey

will cure it in one night—it will always prevent a cold if taken on coming in out of the wet.

Delightfully pleasant to the taste. Good for children. Good for everybody.

Cures Coughs and Gives Strength to the Lungs

All good druggists sell it. 25c, 50c and $1 per Bottle.
Look for the Bell on the Bottle.
BE SURE YOU GET
Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey

For Sale By Badger Drug Co.

Gazette Want Ads bring results

THE JANESVILLE GAZETTE.

Published at the Janesville, Wis., office of the Janesville Daily Gazette, at the corner of Second and Third streets.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION
Daily Edition—By Carrier
One Year ..... $3.00
Six Months ..... $1.80
Three Months ..... $1.00
One Month ..... $0.30
CASH IN ADVANCE
One Year ..... $3.00
Six Months ..... $1.80
Three Months ..... $1.00
One Month ..... $0.30
Long Distance Telephone, No. 77-2
Business Office ..... 77-2
Editorial Rooms ..... 77-3

Generally fair tonight and Friday.
Variable winds.

REPUBLICAN TICKETS.

NATIONAL TICKET
For President—THEODORE ROOSEVELT.
For Vice President—CHAS. W. FAIRBANKS.

For Congressman—H. A. COOPER.

STATE TICKET

As Interpreted by Supreme Court.
For Governor—R. M. LA FOLLETTE.
For Lieutenant Governor—JAMES DAVIDSON.
For Secretary of State—WALTER HIGGINS.
For Attorney General—L. M. STURDEVANT.
For Insurance Commissioner—ZENO M. HOST.
For Railroad Commissioner—JOHN W. THOMAS.

For State Senator—JOHN M. WHITEHEAD.
For Assemblyman, 1st District—A. S. BAKER.
For Assemblyman, 2d District—PLINY NOICROSS.
For Assemblyman, 3d District—W. O. HANSON.

COUNTY TICKET

For Sheriff—WALLACE COCHRANE.
For Treasurer—OLIVE P. SMITH.
For County Clerk—HOWARD LEE.
For Registrar of Deeds—CHAS. WEIRICK.
For Dist. Atty.—WILLIAM O. NEWHOUSE.
For Clerk of Court—WARD STEVENS.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN TICKET

Endorsed by the National Republican Convention.

STATE TICKET

For Governor—EDWARD SCOFIELD.
For Lieutenant Governor—GEORGE H. RAY, La Crosse.
For Secretary of State—NEILS P. HOLMAN, Deerfield.
For State Treasurer—GUSTAV WOLLAEGER, Milwaukee.
For Attorney General—DAVID G. CLASSON, Oconto.
For Railroad Commissioner—F. O. TARBON, Ashland.
For Insurance Commissioner—DAVID C. ROENITZ, Sheboygan.

"VOTE FOR MY THEORIES."

The closing days of the campaign are dramatic. The people of the state are called upon to witness the frantic efforts of a star actor, as he attempts to entertain audiences in half a dozen different localities every 24 hours. Every sort of conveyance is utilized and the curtain rises with scheduled regularity while the single actor, on the verge of collapse, prances up and down the platform and entertains the crowd.

This one-man troupe is a revelation to the sober thinking people of the old Badger state. They are at a loss to understand how they could be so near the edge of ruin and not know it and failing to appreciate the danger, many of them are skeptical as regards the leadership of this self-appointed Moses.

The doctrine he teaches is a new doctrine and when he tells them to vote for "my theories," regardless of party, they are inclined to do a little thinking on their own account.

This one man show is the governor of the great state of Wisconsin. Twice honored by the people but not satisfied, he now descends to the level of the pot house politician and rushes over the state seeking votes, not of his party, but from any source for votes count.

He occupies a pedestal so exalted, that his range of vision detects many snares and pitfalls not perceived by normal vision, and his burning ambition is to save the state from ruin. To do this he is sacrificing health, wealth and business for the good of the common people. No martyr of the dark ages was ever more self-sacrificing.

Success has already crowned his efforts, for he has demoralized the party which honored him, beyond recognition, and on the ruins he hopes to construct a new party of which he is the head.

What a damnable farce the whole thing is. Here is a man who gains popularity by appealing to prejudice and ignorance, denouncing corporations and talking about railroad oppression, who never paid a freight bill, or contributed a dollar to the industrial welfare of the state. He is popular with two classes of people: the ignorant, who like to be told that they are oppressed, and the educators and preachers whose range of vision and channels of thought are more theoretical than practical.

Bryan had the same sort of a following. More than one-third of the faculty of the state university supported him, and the governor is a good deal of a Bryanite himself. It is a strange infatuation and the conservative element of people regardless of party are unable to control it, results will be disastrous and industries paralyzed. The state is not suffering from reform, but it is suffering from lack of ability to exercise common sense in the administration of affairs.

A MUDDLED STATESMAN.

Judge Parker's decision not to take the stump in his own behalf, says the New York Tribune, seems to have been based on very potent common sense considerations. In the discussion of public questions he has shown so far an amazing lack of cogency and comprehension. His unfamiliarity with governmental concerns and governmental methods is painfully apparent. He has a little first hand knowledge of the details of federal legislation and administration as he has about the internal economy of the Russian empire. We have called attention from time to time to the reckless manner in which the democratic candidate accepts and fathers mistaken statistics and irresponsible campaign exaggerations. In many such instances Judge Parker has doubtless been imposed on by ignorant or unscrupulous advisers. Yet his own inability to comprehend or master the subjects he discusses lays him open to the most surprising errors of inference and statement, and makes him almost pathetically ludicrous and ineffective as a political critic.

COOPER FOR THE SENATE.

Congressman Cooper admits in an interview with the Milwaukee Sentinel that he has been approached by the governor's representatives with a proposition to enter the race for the United States senate, and that he has the matter under advisement.

This will be no surprise to the republicans of the First district, who have long known that something was in the wind. The convention which nominated Mr. Cooper endorsed both Senator Quarles and Senator Spooner, and while it voted as a unit for the renomination of the congressman, there was an undercurrent of opposition strong enough to defeat him.

This opposition was only controlled as a matter of policy but it is not dormant, and were it not for the fact that it is presidential year Mr. Cooper might discover his mistake in forsaking the men who fought his battles for him in former years.

There was a time when the Lake Shore congressman recognized some obligations to Rock county, but that was before he became infatuated with La Folletteism. Two years ago when the county called on him to support Senator Whitehead in his candidacy for governor, he turned an indifferent ear, excusing himself on the ground of congressional dignity. As a result Rock county led the landslide which resulted in Mr. Whitehead's defeat. This is recent history with which the republicans of the county are familiar.

HALF TRUTHS WORSE THAN LIES.

The governor is noted for dealing with half truths which in many cases amount to misrepresentation and falsehood. In his Beloit speech last Tuesday night he gave the impression that Senator Whitehead had proposed to trade with him and lend his support providing he would attack the senator in his home county. This is as false as false can be and no one knows it better than the governor.

What Senator Whitehead said, and he said it openly, was that if the governor attacked him in Rock county, as he had been doing in other parts of the state, that he should defend himself.

This is the sort of a campaign that the governor has been conducting and while he may be carried away by noise and enthusiasm he will discover, when the votes are counted that fair minded people do not endorse that sort of clap trap oratory.

Sensor Whitehead is a Rock county man. He has been identified with the interests of the county for more than a quarter of a century, and he enjoys their confidence today as never before. To attack the character of such a man is to insult the intelligence of the county and the governor will find that the people so regard it and will resent it. Bryanism, populism and La Folletteism may control in some parts of the state, but not in Rock county.

Throwing rotten eggs at republican speakers may be good La Folletteism, but that sort of campaigning never makes votes. The odor of the ism is strong enough without a decayed egg accompaniment.

The only principle involved in the coming state election is to get rid of a dictator and to restore the state to normal and healthy condition. This is of more vital importance than all the theoretical reforms in the decalogue.

The passage of the primary law means liberal patronage to the newspapers, and yet the press of the state oppose it. Why? Because it is a monstrosity and the entering wedge to party demoralization.

If you want to cast a full vote against La Folletteism cut out his state ticket and put in the Peck ticket. The governor advises that party lines be ignored. It is the only piece of good advice he has offered during the campaign.

Judge Parker missed his opportunity for greatness by not withdrawing his name when he sent his famous telegram. Every move he has made since has weakened him as a leader.

The governor left Rock county highly elated. He may have another laugh coming next Tuesday evening.

Juggling with figures never adds money to the treasury, as people will find out when they come to pay their taxes.

A republican administration has nothing to do with the weather, but it has everything to do with good markets and good times.

Don't fall to vote against the primary election law. There is much in the law to condemn, and nothing to recommend.

People who are clamoring for the primary law are the people who never attend a caucus.

PRESS COMMENT.

Green Bay Gazette: There seems to be nobody confident enough of election results to make a wheelbarrow bet.

Menominee Herald-Leader: However, Wisconsin has had democratic governors and knows that it can live through their administrations.

Superior Telegram: A man was arrested in Iowa the other day for peddling Bibles. He had no peddler's license.

Madison Journal: When election riots and football rushes have done their work as training schools, the country will be ready to begin the serious business of Christmas shopping.

Oshkosh Northwestern: A girl aged seventeen at Hartford has just married her third husband. Doubtless a good many other girls in this country would like to know her system.

Oshkosh Times: It is suspected that those democrats that mixed up in the republican faction fight two years ago will keep their hands out of the fire this time and permit the republican "reformers" to rake out their own chestnuts.

Chicago News: What the politicians particularly dislike about a sane campaign is that then the independent voter who makes queer marks all over his ballot is much in evidence.

Winneconne Local: A Marinette lady went to church last Sunday evening with some matches tucked into one of her stockings to have them handy when she got home, and while listening to the sermon they somehow ignited—with self-evident results. It is plain that the pastor must have been delivering a sermon of reaching effect, on the subject of "Fire and Brimstone."

Evening Wisconsin: Recently a doctor was indicted in damages for operating on the wrong foot of a patient whom he had put under chloroform. Now a young woman has secured a verdict against a doctor who operated on the wrong ear after he had given her an anesthetic. It seems to be dangerous for some surgeons to work after they have put their patients beyond consultation while the operations are in progress.

Whitewater Register: The governor is more in demand for speeches at the present time than ever before in his life. From every county in the state comes up an agonized cry from his followers to hurry to their rescue, that his republican and democratic followers are leaving him in shoals. The story is the same everywhere, it is a landslide—away from him.

Milwaukee Sentinel: Those who have watched developments during the last four years do not need to be told that Gov. La Follette will "open a campaign early in the morning of the next day" in any event. If he should be elected he would begin his next campaign on the morning of the following election day. There has never been a moment since he became a candidate for the gubernatorial nomination in 1900 when he did not have a campaign in active operation.

Sings "Good-By" and Dies. Biddeford, Me., Nov. 3.—After singing "Good-By, Little Girl, Good-By," Miss Eva Gray, the soprano soloist of the Kit Karroll company, was suddenly stricken with heart trouble and died at midnight.

Portland Theater Is Sold. Portland, Oregon, Nov. 3.—Cordray's theater has been sold for $50,000 to a syndicate headed by New York and Seattle capitalists. The theater will be turned into a vaudeville house.

THE GREAT REGENERATIVE POWER OF NU-TRI-OLA
Cures Cuts, BARKSWORTH'S in color

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

BEST for you because best made, are Satin Skin Cream and Satin Skin Complexion Powder. Use is proof, 25c.

CLAIRVOYANT—Medium, Private Readings daily on all affairs, 50¢ from nine a. m. to nine p. m. Call at 161 E. Jackson St.

FOR RENT—Furnished rooms, with or without bath; near business center; heat and use of bath. Mrs. Julia Myers, 2 East street.

NU-TRI-OLA

HORSE PLAY IS TO END SHORTLY

Modern-Woodmen Are to Drop This Feature of Their Initiations.

Horse play in initiatory ceremonies in Woodmen camps is to be discouraged by the head officers of the societies. The word received of a suit for $5,000 brought against the camp at Boone, Ia., for using a red-hot iron in an initiation, in which the candidate was severely burned was mentioned in this paper several days ago. The attention of the officers has been called within the last month to the fact that several concerns and individuals are making active canvasses in several states in the jurisdiction, with a view of persuading them to take up side degrees.

Head Clerk Hawes is issuing instructions to all camp clerks and officers of the Janesville camp with respect to calling the attention of the respective camps to section 24 of the by-laws which reads:

"Every local camp and the members thereof are hereby prohibited from using any dangerous appliances or indulging in any ceremonies while conferring the degrees or adopting a member other than those prescribed in the ritual of this society."

"There have been several instances in our history," said Major Hawes, "where the society has been involved in expense and litigation, and has in one or two cases been mulcted for damages, because of the action of local camps in indulging in horse play, or in using unauthorized paraphernalia in conferring the degrees."

"It is proper, where the ritualism permits latitude along this line, that the neighbors should take a fair advantage of it to have a little fun, but there is a clearly defined line of demarcation between legitimate entertainment in conducting a candidate through the forest and indulgence in dangerous horse play. We can not very well find safe middle ground, and therefore the head camp continues to recommend to the local camps that they confine themselves strictly to the secret work of our ritualism."

Corpses in Water Reservoir. The dead body of a woman who had committed suicide having been found in one of the reservoirs from which London is supplied with water, the contents, amounting to 50,000,000 gallons, had to be allowed to run to waste.

Kitten Nursed by a Pigeon.

In a cottage near the village of Newcastle-on-Tyne, Roxburghshire, a pigeon has evinced great friendliness for a kitten. With the consent of the old cat the bird has been sitting on the kitten and helping to look after it and play with it. The three constitute an incongruous but happy family.

A LITTLE CHILL, A BIG GOLD!
Painkiller
when taken in time always prevents sickness. Buy it—TRY IT. Keep it handy for sudden attacks. The old reliable medicine.

IF PROSPECTIVE MOTHERS USE NU-TRI-OLA BABIES WILL BE PICTURED OF HEALTH

Snow Apples...
25c a peck, $1 a bushel.

We would advise you to order some of these good eating apples early, as they will not last long, and the season is about over.

We also have an assortment of good York state apples: Spitzenburg, Greenings, King, and Tallman Sweet.

FREDENDALL'S GROCERY

When next ordering groceries, give us a trial. We study to please.

50 GOLD STAMPS FREE 50
Cut this Coupon out and present it at our store and make a purchase of $2.00 or over, and we will give you Fifty Gold Stamps Free. This special offer continues all week, and for each coupon you bring us you get the 50 stamps Free, if you make a purchase of $2 or over.

Remember, the Gold Stamps are the same as cash to you. Your little book when filled is worth $2.50 and can be exchanged at our store for this amount of goods. Start your collections now and do not fail to take advantage of this special offer.

CUT THIS OUT
KING & COWLES

50 GOLD STAMPS FREE 50

WHO IS HE? SOMETHING TO DRINK? YES

But Charles Butler Lost His Thirst When He Saw It.

"I am so hungry that I don't know where I am going to sleep tonight. Will you please give me a little coin to get a meal with?" was the jocular request of a lurid nosed individual who accosted Officer Keegan at Third and Pearl streets today. The officer was in plain clothes.

"You just bet your bottom dollar I will," returned Keegan. "There's a fine place down here. If you'll come along I'll feed you all right."

"Don't care if I do. You don't happen to have a bottle about you?" "No, but we'll get a drink down here."

And they walked west on Third street, taking conversational shots at each other. The "hungry" man was in police headquarters before he recognized the character of the building and then came a wall load and long.

"Oh, you haven't got any kick coming," said Officer Keegan. "You'll get something to eat tonight, and there's a hydrant there. I keep my word. And just to show you my liberality I'll ask the judge to give you something in the morning."

But Charles Butler of Janesville, Wis., had lost his thirst and refused to drink.—St. Louis City Journal.

HORSE FOND OF TOBACCO.

Remarkable Taste for Weed Displayed by Southern Quagga.

"One had a fondness for fresh meat; another gobbled up any old thing that came his way, bean soup, potato parings, stale bread, or cooked meat; while the third, a small sorrel mare, actually had developed the tobacco habit." The owner obtained her in Texas, and says that the mare was one that had been "captured" in the South during the civil war.

"She would carry me fifty miles a day," he continues, "then carry me back the next day if I wanted her to do it. I had her about two days when I found out that she chewed tobacco. She grabbed a small package of fine cut out of my hand, and then stood chewing it, paper and all. Seeing that it had not hurt her I kept her in tobacco, buying the leaf tobacco that all these Mexican stores sold here then, a large 'hand' of it for a silver dime. That would not have paid the duty on it had any been paid, but the collector had not got here yet. When he did come these men had to stop selling it at this price. I never went near my mare without bringing her tobacco. If she did not get it right away she would begin to shove me with her nose, and kept it up until I gave her the usual chew."

"I rode a horse for four years, my racehorse Charlie, which would eat half a peck of peaches as fast as I could remove the stones out of them. The same horse would eat a pound of sugar or candy without even stopping."—Forest and Stream.

Red Gum Wood Much Used. Because it warps and stains in seasoning red gum was long neglected, but now 60 per cent of the barrels and boxes made in the south are made of red gum. The wood is also shipped to Europe, where it is made into furniture, and it is also used there in paving blocks. When steamed it is easily bent, and it thus becomes available for carriage rims and carriage wood stock.

Morning Glory Megaphones. The day of the brass megaphone is over. The latest thing in a megaphone mouthpiece is one built like a big morning glory and colored accordingly, red, white or blue. They are very showy and dealers expect a big sale for them.

NU-TRI-OLA &amp; NATURE

CURES every form of skin disease.

COAL

Wisdom and Economy lead the way to us. If you have never tried us, begin now, and if clean, clinkerless, free-burning coal, the kind that gives you the most heat with the least effort is what you want, we'll take chances on holding your trade in the future. Service quick and careful.

PEOPLES' COAL CO.

Yards at 9 Adams Street, Phone 293
City Office at Badger Drug Store, Both Phones 178.

For That Chilly Feeling

use Michigan Maple, Second Growth Oak, Scranton or Lehigh Hard Coal or Soft Coal and Coke, all kinds and sizes.

Sager's Coal and Wood Yard.

NORTH BLUFF STREET.
New Phone, 111.
Old Phone, 4161.

CELEBRATED THEIR TIN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kelm Surprised Them Tuesday Evening.

Thirty-five friends of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kelm surprised them at their home Tuesday evening the occasion being the tenth wedding anniversary of the host and hostess. Tempting refreshments were served and rocking chair and gifts of tinware were presented at the conclusion of the festivities.

Marriage Licenses: Marriage licenses have been issued recently to Lewis Warner and Lillian Babin, both of the town of Turtle, Miles Clark of Magnolia and Freda Gundlach of Center; Albert E. Ellis of Janesville and Clara Olson of Edgerton; Lynn T. Smith of the village of Milton and Minnie D. Kennedy of the town of Janesville; John Lipton and Mary Koltermann, both of Janesville.

Explosion Destroys Buildings. Bloomington, Ill., Nov. 3.—By the explosion of a traction engine on the farm of James Felter, one-half mile north of Beason, a number of outbuildings were destroyed and Mr. Felter was severely injured.

Human Head Is Found. Pittsburg, Nov. 3.—Boys playing near the Harwick mine in Springdale found the head of a human being, which evidently had been severed with a knife. It was partially buried.

Bridge Constructor Is Dead. Detroit, Mich., Nov. 3.—Col. F. Kallman, who directed the construction of the Belle Isle bridge over the Detroit river, died suddenly of heart failure.

Voodoo Charm for President. Washington, Nov. 3.—A silver-mounted rabbit foot has been presented to the president by John W. Frazer, a city official of Philadelphia.

Murder Is Suspected. Burlington, Ohio, Nov. 3.—The body of Robert Peel, a railroad man, has been found. He had been murdered. Three suspects were arrested.

To Dismantle the Mayflower. New York, Nov. 3.—The auxiliary naval yacht Mayflower was put out of commission at the Brooklyn navy yard and will be dismantled.

Home for Historical Society. New York, Nov. 3.—A mysterious donor has given $200,000 to build a new home for the New York Historical society.

Clock Goes Crazy. Lancaster, England, has an eccentric town clock. The other day at 11 a. m. it struck twenty-four times. At 4 p. m. it did better, with 100 times, and at 5 p. m. it was breaking the record and had struck continuously for fifteen minutes, when a mob of infuriated citizens took it in hand and stopped it.

NU-TRI-OLA & NATURE
CURES every form of skin disease.

Doll Buggies and Go-Carts - - - 25c
A good broom ..... 20c
Whisk, bloom ..... 8c
Lamps, complete ..... 15c
Pancake Griddle ..... 10c
Pancake Turner ..... 3c
Jardiniers ..... 8c

Everything for the house from 10c up.

A. W. HALL'S RACKET - STORE

163 W. Milwaukee St.

Successor to A. Rider

Nearly Every Janesville Power User

Employs Our Electric Motor.

There is a Reason.

ASK THE

ELECTRIC CO.

For further particulars.

JANESVILLE CONTRACTING CO.

On 5th Bridge

C. B. EASTMAN, TEACHER OF VOICE CULTURE.

The Art of Perfect Breathing and Breath Control.

Voices Tested Free.

Caledonia Rooms, Central Block.

New Phone 422.

NU-TRI-OLA

PECK FAVORED BY HIS OLD COMRADES

Forty Old Soldiers of Darlington, Pledge Themselves to the Democratic Nominee.

One of the most touching incidents of the present campaign took place at Darlington last evening when the members of the Harvey post of that city made the following announcement to George W. Peck, during his speech at that city. C. R. Bridgman, representing the post, said:

"Comrade Peck, Harvey Post is composed of the veterans of the civil war who now reside in this city. Three-fourths of its members have been life long republicans, but almost to a man we are here to greet you, to extend our hearty congratulations and to assure you that we will support you and vote for you or governor. You were with us from 1861 to 1865, and now we are with you, and for you in 1904. You have been our friend, and we will be your friends."

Peck is Overcome With Emotion. The former governor attempted to respond but his emotions overcame him. His voice choked up, his speech failed, and he turned away while the tears coursed down his cheeks. It was a pathetic scene, and there was not a dry eye in the room over that little band of decrepit, begrizzled men; some with crutches, some with canes, one wholly blind, and all infirm. At last Mr. Peck was able to proceed, and said:

"Old comrades, I have been a candidate for office many times, but never have I solicited support from the old soldiers. Many times they have come as individuals and proffered their support, but never have the members of a post come in a body to make the offer. It overcomes me. I feel it deeply, and appreciate it fully. If elected I will not forget my old comrades."

The speaking took place on Main street in front of the hotel, and was listened to by a crowd of about 1,000 people. Mr. Stewart spoke briefly on Congressman Cooper's record, and was followed by Mayor Rose, who talked for about an hour and a half on the issues of the campaign. His attack on the La Follette administration was scathing.

Gov. Peck followed with a speech entirely on state issues. He attacked the game warden, factory inspectors, and the primary election bill, and proposed a railroad commission, declaring that the commission should be elected by the people. His remarks, as well as those of the other speakers, were heartily cheered. Well-known democrats from the towns of the county were on the speakers' platform. Col. George W. Stevenson presided.

At the close of the meeting the people insisted upon shaking Mr. Peck's hand and half an hour was given up to an informal reception. Dozens of former La Follette supporters assured him openly of their support.

LOCAL NEWS IN BRIEF.

Social Club Sewer. Thirty members of the Social club of the Congregational church met at the church parlors yesterday and labored with needle and thread for the sale which is to be held on December 14. A supper is to be given on the evening of Nov. 23.

Art League Meeting. The Art League will hold a meeting on Friday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. E. D. McGowan, 154 Milton avenue, at 3 o'clock.

Personal Guarantee. Manager Myers wishes to make a personal guarantee of the moving pictures to be exhibited at the opera-house to-night. This is the same company that was here two years ago and the exhibition, Mr. Myers says, is the finest of its kind on the road.

At Trinity Church. The Rev. Father Hugheson of the Order of the Holy Cross will preach at Trinity church at 7:30 this evening. A cordial welcome is extended to all.

Dancing Party. The D. of H. No. 27 held a dancing party at West Side Odd Fellows' hall last evening, fully forty couples being in attendance. Baldwin & Rehfeld's orchestra furnished the music.

Takes a New Position. Ben Miller, who for a number of years has been in the employ of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., has resigned his position to take the district management of the Badger State Protective Insurance Company in Rock County.

He Pleaded Guilty. W. F. Holbrook of Beloit who was brought here last Thursday, charged with breaking into Warner's instrument store and taking about $5 worth of stamps, pleaded guilty to the charge in municipal court this morning and the case was adjourned six months.

It was shown that Mr. Holbrook was intoxicated at the time and that he had never been guilty of such an offense before.

Meet on Sunday. Delegates from all of the labor unions will meet at Assembly hall Sunday afternoon to arrange a new schedule of meetings during the winter season.

NOTICE TO VOTERS

Notice is hereby given that a voting machine will be on exhibition at each of the voting places in the various wards in the city on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, Nov. 24 and 25, 1904, from 7:00 to 9:00 o'clock, and that an instructor will be present to show how the machine is operated. I suggest that every voter who has not already done so, call and learn how to operate the machine as this will be the last chance before election day. The voting places are located as follows: first ward, at the city hall; second ward, at the voting booth at the corner of Fourth avenue and N. Main street; third ward, at the voting booth on Racine street near S. Main street; fourth ward, at the voting booth, No. 53 S. Academy street; fifth ward, at the voting booth on Holmes street, near Center avenue. A. E. BADGER, City Clerk.

Buy it in Janesville.

FIFIELD CUP WON BY MISS SCHICKER

Large Crowd of Spectators Watched Close Contest at Links Yesterday Afternoon.

In the final contest for the Fifield trophy at the golf links yesterday Miss Elisabeth Schicker defeated Mrs. A. J. Harris two up and one to play. The contest was witnessed by a large crowd of interested spectators and many remained for supper and a social time at the clubhouse last evening. The playing for the Fifield trophy has convincingly shown that the Sinsissippi Golf club has some fine players among the lady members.

THE WEATHER

Temperature last 24 hours taken from U. S. registered thermometer at Helmstreet's drugstore: highest, 65 above; lowest, 34 above; ther. at 7 a. m., 40; at 3 p. m., 65; wind, south; sunshine.

FUTURE EVENTS

Lyman Howe's moving pictures at Myers theatre, Thursday evening, November 3.
Monroe High school football team plays Janesville at Athletic park Saturday afternoon, Nov. 5.
Senator John M. Whitehead speaks on the issues at Myers theatre, Saturday evening, Nov. 5.
M. G. Jeffers speaks at Myers theatre, Monday evening, Nov. 7.

LODGE MEETINGS TONIGHT

Janesville Chapter No. 5, R. A. M., at Masonic hall.
Laurie Lodge No. 2, Degree of Honor, at East Side Odd Fellows' hall.
Odd Fellows' Social and Beneficial club at East Side hall.
Fraternal Reserve association at West Side Odd Fellows' hall.
Carroll Council No. 596, Knights of Columbus, at K. of C. hall.
International Association of Railway Clerks at Beloit.

BRIEF BITS OF LOCAL NEWS

Fresh fish at Taylor Bros.
Fancy bacon, 15c lb. Nash.
Bargains in overcoats. "Talk to Lowell."
Sweet breads, Nash.
For clothing "Talk to Lowell."
Trout and yellow pike, Nash.
Telephone your order for fish to Nolan Bros.

The agent of a large manufacturer of cloaks and suits, of whom we have purchased our line in these goods, will be at our store Saturday, Nov. 5, with his samples and will sell his entire line at a discount of one-third. T. P. Burns.

Trout and pike tomorrow at Nolan Bros.
Best 25c coffee on earth.
Best 50c tea on earth, Nash.
Gillflower eating apples, 30c a peck, Taylor Bros.

Tickets on sale at Jones Grocery, People's Drug Co., Skelley's Book Store, and Y. M. C. A. building. It will pay you to attend our special sale of sample cloaks and suits Saturday, Nov. 5th. T. P. Burns.

Attend our special sale of sample cloaks Saturday, Nov. 5th. T. P. Burns.
Best patent flour, $1.50 per sack. Every sack guaranteed. Taylor Bros. Pictures framed with all the latest styles of mounting. Finest of workmanship and lowest prices in the city. Savings Store, 7 S. Jackson St.

Solid meat bulk oysters, Nash.
The ladies of the Central Methodist church will hold a social on Friday afternoon at the home of Mr. Tippet. Coffee will be served for which a ten-cent charge will be made. All are cordially invited to attend.
Macaroni, spaghetti, vermicelli, Nash.

Pike and trout, Taylor Bros.
A fine line of crockery and glassware, lowest prices in the city. Savings Store, 7 S. Jackson St.
H. G. cookies, doughnuts and bread, Nash.
Frogs' legs a luxury, Nash.
Fresh fish, Nash.
Fresh fish our specialty, Nolan Bros.

Get your fish order in early, Nash.
Frogs' legs, Nash.
Change of diet, fresh fish, Nash.
Y. M. C. A. entertainment course. Corner Stone, $1.60, Nash.
Those who want season tickets should secure them at once or give a pledge for the number they will take. The limit of season ticket sale assures all a comfortable sitting.

Father L. J. Vaughn, the great dramatic orator, opens the course Nov. 15. December 20 the celebrated Salisbury Orchestra with eleven trained artists will appear. January 27 Ash Davis, cartoonist and entertainer, transformation scenes. Two o'clocks, with special paper, 45c. February 25th The Harvard Musical Club. No two numbers alike. All are artists on six different instruments. Also, mixed quartette; reader and humorist. March 20 The Hearns Sisters. Experience and ability characterize this company. They are cultivated musicians, using seven instruments; also a lady quartette. Season tickets, $1.00; single admission, 50c. Sale of season tickets limited to 550.

The ladies of the Congregational church will hold a Christmas sale and supper Wednesday, Dec. 14th.

$7.50 to St. Louis and Back. From Janesville via the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway, November 7-8-14-15-21-22-23-24-28 and 29. For details apply to the ticket agent.

Loan Band: The Loan Band of the King's Daughters of the First Congregational church will hold their regular meeting Monday, Nov. 7, instead of Tuesday. The band has been invited to meet with the Mary Porter band of the First Congregational church of Beloit and take tea on Nov. 11 at six o'clock. Those intending to go are asked to leave names with Miss Laddow at 22 West Milwaukee street.

Substitute for Leather. What is claimed to be an effective substitute for leather has been invented by a German engineer at Mannheim, in Baden. The patent has been sold to an American firm for $200,000.

FINAL FIGURES IN REGISTRATION

SHOW BIG INCREASE IN VOTE OF THIS CITY.

GRAND TOTAL IS NOW 3,661

Which is 700 Larger Than the Vote Cast in 1900—Third and Fourth Wards.

At the last presidential election Janesville cast 2,957 ballots. There are indications that the vote next Tuesday will be in the neighborhood of six or seven hundred above this figure. The total registration, to date, is 3,661. There were 307 new names put on the books this week Tuesday and Wednesday. Of course all who are registered will not vote, but on the other hand there are certain to be a considerable number who have neglected to register who will secure affidavits in order to register their choice of national, state, and county officers.

Registration By Wards. The third and fourth wards show remarkable even voting strength, the first named having just one less voter on the lists than the last named. The two wards are by far the largest in the city from the standpoint of the voting potentiality. The complete registration is as follows:

First	706
Second	581
Third	525
Fourth	538
Fifth	499
Total	3,661

Two Years' Increase. The increase over the poll list two years ago is 546, as shown in the following table:

First	548
Second	552
Third	751
Fourth	849
Fifth	409
Total	3,115

RESOLVED TO WIN FROM SATURDAY ON

High School Football Team Shows Rapid Improvement in Practice—Monroe Here Saturday.

Marked improvement in the work of the football team in practice this week is raising hopes in the breasts of the high school rooters that the tide of defeat will turn next Saturday and that the end of the season will see the Janesville eleven in the front rank of the state's best players. Caldwell was last night taken from right halfback and placed in the fullback position; Feeley was shifted from right end to right half, and Wright from fullback to right end. This new alignment produced better work on the part of the backs from the outset and the move is generally regarded as a good one. Tonight the boys will play a practice game against the alumni. Monroe has a good team but Janesville is going to beat it Saturday.

EX-ALD. J. B. McLEAN IS TO LEAVE CITY

Goes with Family Next Week to California, Where He May Locate Permanently.

Former Alderman J. B. McLean and wife leave next week for Los Angeles where they will spend the winter and possibly locate permanently. Mr. McLean came here many years ago and was interested with his father in erecting and conducting the Janesville woolen mills. He left the mills on account of ill health and after a rest took charge of the city crushing plant and superintended the construction of the streets. He was an active member of the city council for twenty years. Both Mr. and Mrs. McLean have a wide circle of friends in Janesville who will regret to hear of their intention to make their future home elsewhere.

OUR TRAVELERS SAIL FOR HOME

Stanley Tallman and Dr. Fifield Left Queenstown for America Yesterday.

Stanley Tallman and Dr. G. W. Fifield sailed yesterday from Queenstown on the White Star liner "Oceanic" for America. In a letter written by the former on October 23, which has just been received, many of the interesting places visited are described. The battlefield of Waterloo near Brussels was visited and the Janesville tourists inspected Rembrandt's great painting "The Night Watch" at Amsterdam, as well as Rubens' "Elevation of the Cross" and "Descent From the Cross" at Antwerp. In London they visited the tower and saw the crown jewels, St. Paul's cathedral, Westminster Abbey, the houses of parliament, Buckingham Palace, the British Museum and national gallery, and the White-chapel district where many of the subject poor live on a penny a day. They also investigated the law courts. In England they found the art galleries, theatres, and other places of amusement closed on Sundays, while all were open on the continent. London did not impress them as favorably as Paris and Berlin. They expected to visit Oxford, Stratford on the Avon—Shakespeare's birthplace, Melrose Abbey, Edinburgh and Glasgow in Scotland, and a portion of Ireland, before their departure. In London an invitation to call was received from Miss Marcella Witherington who formerly resided here.

When once liberated within your system, it produces a most wonderful effect. It's worth one's last dollar to feel the pleasure of life that comes by taking Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Smith Drug Co.

BELIEVE PUHLER TO BE DEMENTED

Queer Actions of Former Janesville Man Lead to an Investigation in Milwaukee.

Frederick Puhler, at one time city editor of the Gazette, who has recently been employed at the Milwaukee headquarters of the democratic county committee, is to have an examination to determine his mental condition. It is alleged that his actions recently are convincing evidence of a disordered mind. He is said to have been making impromptu campaign speeches and to have hired all the express wagons available to peddle campaign literature, and that a lot of literature printed in Italian for the benefit of the Italian voters has been carefully sent by him to the Irish of Milwaukee. A flood of bills from expressmen, all claiming to have been hired by Puhler, for $60 and upwards a day, caused an investigation. He is also said to have threatened the lives of his wife and daughter. William George Bruce, chairman of the democratic county committee; W. R. Gaylord, a social democrat; and Theodore Engel, chairman of the social democratic committee, are the ones who have made application to have Puhler committed to an asylum. Dr. J. J. McGovern, the examining physician, is a prominent Milwaukee man. Chauncey Voecky has been appointed guardian ad litem. The examination was to have been conducted before Judge Carpenter today.

LAKE GENEVA MAN FINDS BRIDE HERE

G. A. Van Slyck and Miss Hatlie Thompson Howard Were Wedded in Rockford.

At the parsonage of the First Congregational church at Rockford yesterday morning, Rev. F. H. Bodman officiating, Miss Hatlie Thompson Howard of this city and G. A. Van Slyck of Lake Geneva took their vows "for better or for worse." The bride is a niece and adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McLean and during her residence here for ten years past has made many devoted friends. Besides possessing a most pleasing personality she is a musician of marked attainments. (The groom is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Van Slyck of Lake Geneva and is one of the prominent young men of his city. Mr. and Mrs. Van Slyck left Rockford for Milwaukee on a short wedding trip. They were registered at the Davidson last evening.

FIFTY-SIX YEARS A RESIDENT HERE

Mrs. Sarah Clark Called by Death at the Home of Her Son Clarence.

Last night, at the stroke of twelve, the earthly life of Mrs. Sarah A. Clark, widow of the late Luther Clark, came to a peaceful close, after an illness of two weeks, at the home of her son Clarence L. Clark, 113 Washington street. Mrs. Clark was a pioneer resident of Janesville, and leaves many friends whose acquaintance dates back to an early day in the history of our city.

Mrs. Clark's maiden name was Sarah Altheda Osborn. She was born in Byron, Genesee county, N. Y., June 11, 1828. In 1848 she married Luther Clark, for many years a well-known builder and contractor in this city, and came to Janesville to reside. In the village life of those days she was ever active in ministering to the sick and afflicted, and to her closing years has been untiring in her devotion at the bedside of the suffering. Five children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Clark, only two of whom are living—Clarence L. Clark of this city, and Dr. Charles L. Clark of Dartford, Wis. In her home life she was most devoted and unselfish, as neighbor and friend, kind and faithful. She was a member of the Court street M. E. church from the time of its organization. The funeral services will be conducted by Rev. J. H. Tippet at the home on 113 Washington St. tomorrow (Friday) afternoon at two o'clock, and burial will take place in the family lot at Oak Hill.

Katharine Beyer Valentine, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Valentine, died this morning after an illness of thirty-six hours. In their affliction Mr. and Mrs. Valentine have the sympathy of their many friends.

Thomas A. Butler. Funeral services over the remains of little Thomas Butler, three weeks old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Butler, who passed away at the home of his parents on Arch street, were held this afternoon from the house at two o'clock, the Rev. J. A. M. Richey officiating. Interment was made in Oak Hill cemetery.

WILL DAVEY WALKS THREE MILES WITH BROKEN BONE

Thrown From Wheel Near the Pratt Stone Quarry, "Fracturing Collar-bone and Dislocating Shoulder." While returning to the city from the farm on which he was working Tuesday, Will Davey was thrown from his wheel on the road, passing through the Pratt stone quarry, and as a result of the fall has a fractured collar-bone and dislocated shoulder. He did not realize how serious his injuries were, but being unable to ride, walked the rest of the distance to the city. The road at this place is very rough and stoney and he thinks in the semi-darkness he struck a large piece of rock.

When once liberated within your system, it produces a most wonderful effect. It's worth one's last dollar to feel the pleasure of life that comes by taking Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Smith Drug Co.

SUGAR BEETS ARE NOW BEING OUT

Work at Factory Has Commenced—1500 Tons of Roots in the Receiving Sheds.

With fifteen thousand tons of beets in the receiving sheds the first work of converting the roots into sugar was commenced yesterday at the plant of the Rock County Sugar company. The primary operation is the washing in the sheds from where the beets are floated into the main building to be cut and crushed and sent up stairs where the next steps of boiling, extraction and crystallization take place. A night force will be put on this evening and it is expected that before the week is ended there will be two hundred and fifty hands employed and six hundred tons of beets will be cut daily.

SURPRISE PARTY FOR MRS. ZERBEL

A Number of Ladies of St. John's Church Enter Home on Hickory St. with Well Filled Baskets.

At her home on Hickory street last evening, Mrs. Zerbel was surprised by a number of ladies of St. John's church, bringing with them well filled baskets and an abundance of delicious things to eat. An elegant supper was served and the rest of the evening was spent in cards.

WAS SURPRISED BY FORTY NEIGHBORS

Home of Mrs. Hedges, Who Soon Moves to Michigan, Scene of Pleasant Party.

Mrs. Louis Hedges was pleasantly surprised by about forty of her friends and neighbors at her home on Jackson street last evening. Lunch was played by the party and a bountiful supper was served at half past eleven. In the games Mrs. Hedges carried off the prize and Mr. Hedges the consolation trophy. Mrs. Hedges is about to move to Michigan, and in behalf of those present Mrs. W. J. Hill presented the hostess with a handsome gift, the evidence of the high esteem in which they held her.

NOTICE

The best sugar factory started today but it will be several days before the plant will be in smooth running order. Visitors will not be admitted until the middle of next week. After that date they will be welcome and every courtesy extended.

THE FAIR

Here you will find an up-to-date and extensive line of winter goods.

We are making prices that will create great activity for a few days.

Boys' 2-piece Suits, 4 to 8 years, $1.25
Boys' 3-piece Suits, 9 to 14 yrs., $2.75
Boys' Overcoats, 8 to 14 yrs., $2.25
Men's Wool Suits, 33 to 40 sizes, $5.25
Men's Wool Pants, $1.75
Men's Overcoats, $4.25
Men's Double Sole Shoes, $1.00

EVERYTHING EXACTLY AS REPRESENTED.

THE FAIR

Fish At

Dedrick's

Fresh

Trout, per lb., 12½c
Whitefish, per lb., 12½c

Smoked

Whitefish, lb., 12½c
Bloaters, 2 for 5c
Herring, 10c doz.; 25c bx.
Hullab, lb., 18c
Our hullab, very thick and white.

In Brine

White Mackerel, 10c each
Pound Herring, 5c each
Bloaters, 10c doz.; 25c bx.
Holland Herring, 10c keg

Pickled Herring

In spices, sliced lemon, onion, bay leaves, etc., 3 for 10c

Codfish Chunks

The choicest cuts of genuine selected codfish. Very thick and flaky. Per lb., 16c

Both Phones 9

NEWS OF A PERSONAL NATURE.

Mr. Bert Carpenter, of Osgo, Iowa, is the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Joe Bartlett.

Several of the farmers listened to Gov. La Follette's speech at Beloit Tuesday evening and were very enthusiastic over it.

Miss Clara Miller and Mrs. Joe Byers were callers at the village Tuesday evening.

F. G. Borden of Milton was a Janesville visitor today.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Temple, of Brodhead, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. Laurer, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Day visited their son, Charles, in Spring Valley.

Harvey Clark of the state board of control who recently inspected conditions in the kitchen at the Blind institute on complaint of several students was re-elected vice president Tuesday.

Mrs. Charles Corson and daughter are visiting relatives and friends in Monroe.

John Clark of Monroe transacted business in the city yesterday.

Mrs. F. W. Zimmermann of Monroe was a Janesville visitor yesterday.

Helen Florence Whitelaw of Havana, Ill., a composer of prominence, who has written songs for May Irwin, Maude Fenlon Bollman and other singers, is visiting in the city.

Mr. Amos Shaw has been in Evansville a couple of days, calling on Mr. Levi Sperry.

E. A. Salter left this morning for a week's visit at his former home in Chilton, Wis. From there he will go to Denver on the tenth of the month and spend the winter in the west.

Officer Patrick Fanning underwent an operation which terminated successfully, and Guardian of Peace Will Soon Be Out Again.

Officer Patrick Fanning is off duty for a few days as the result of an operation to remove a small portion of his lower lip which has recently been performed. Former Sheriff T. L. Acheson has been relieving him. Mr. Fanning will be on duty again in a day or two.

Mining Incorporation: Articles of organization of the Baxter Mining Co. of Janesville, a corporation instituted for the purpose of mining and smelting lead, and capitalized at $35,000 divided into 35,000 shares of one dollar each, have been filed with the register of deeds. The incorporators are John Cunningham, Isabella S. Maclean, B. M. Palmer, W. H. Dougherty, and H. M. Cody.

Cut Glass

of Blue White Purity

For depth of cutting and beauty of design, the extensive assortment of Cut Glass which we are now showing is an unrivaled exhibit of lasting brilliancy.

Our importation of Diamonds and Precious Stones, combined with the usual elaborate display of Sterling Silver and Rich Jewelry, offer a wide selection of artistic designs.

Hall & Sayles

"THE RELIABLE JEWELERS"

Apples!

Apples!

Baldwin and Greening Apples,

Large and sound, 3 bushels in a barrel, only per bbl.

$2.40

E. R. WINSLOW

20 North Main.

New Phone 647, Old Phone 3391

Nearly all candy is good

Some is better than others

I HANDLE only the best

Besides good home made candies, you can find a large assortment of Gunther's and Allegretti's chocolates here.

Allie Razook

No. 1 East Milwaukee St.

Al Smith's old stand.

Special Sale of Bitter Sweet Chocolates,

25c. Per Pound

New Sweet Kraut Candy,

20c. Per Pound

Oriental Chewing Candy ..... 10c

All kinds home made candy.

Forzley & Bro.

Janesville Candy Store

8 East Milwaukee Street

Common Sense is Uncommon

BADGER DRUG CO.

Interior Freight Handlers and Warehouse Men's International Union, No. 5
-1st and 3rd Wednesdays.

Mary J. Wesendonk to Charles Learn, $1,850. Lot 14-1 Crofts Addition, Vol. 166dd.

"If" a woman ever gets so "home-ly" she isn't worth looking at, she'd better take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Brings back the bloom of youth. 35 cents. Tea or tablets. Smith-Drug-Co.

W. J. LAWRENCE
Manager
Janesville, Wisconsin

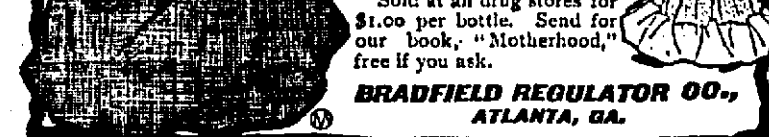

of the hoisting engineers had signed the scale of wages.

BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO.,
ATLANTA, GA.

BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO.
ATLANTA, GA.

The Yellow Holly

By FERGUS HUME,
Author of "The Mystery of a Hansom Cab," Etc.

Copyright, 1903, by G. W. Dillingham Company

facted. I never was a coward except in one thing. I paused and looked timidly at George. "I shrink from telling you how I was the unhappy cause of your father's death."

"You were not the cause, in my opinion, Mrs. Jersey was the cause."

"Well, I thought you would shrink from me did you know all."

"I do know all, and I do not shrink from you," replied George, leaning across the desk to shake Ireland's hand. "It was a pure accident and has been related by your enemy."

"I am so glad the truth is known to you at last," faltered the old man, "and that you see how unconsciously I

"I do know all, and I do not shrink from you."

caused the death. I shall lie down forever. But I am glad you know. I am glad you are not angered."

"We are the best of friends, Mr. Ireland. You have always been kind to me. I am afraid my visit has been too much for you."

"No, I am glad you came. I am glad you spoke out. I always intended to do so, but I feared lest you should blame me."

"By this time they were ascending the stairs. George conducted the old man to his room and sent for the doctor. Ireland undressed and got to bed. Then he insisted on George leaving him."

"But you are ill," protested the young man.

"I am dying. But what of that? I am glad to die. I shall meet Rosina again after long, long years of sorrow. Go, George. We understand one another, and you have forgiven me. There is no more to be said."

"There is nothing to forgive," replied George softly. Then, to humor his old guardian, he departed. A strong grip of the hand was exchanged between them. George left the room and saw Ireland lying as still as any corpse. Only his lips moved, and they murmured continuously, "Rosina, Rosina!" He was true to the woman he loved to the very end.

George left the house, as there was nothing he could do, but he intended to call in again. Meanwhile he repaired to Amelia square to see Bawdsey. Derrington wished him to tell the detective to stop looking after the case and discharge him from his employment. In his pocket George had a check for $1,000, and when this was paid the whole case was to be relegated to obscurity. The sooner Bawdsey married Lola and went to America the better, Derrington thought. And for his own sake Bawdsey would hold his tongue, seeing what a close connection he was of the dead woman.

"What you are ill," protested the young man.

"I am dying. But what of that? I am glad to die. I shall meet Rosina again after long, long years of sorrow. Go, George. We understand one another, and you have forgiven me. There is no more to be said."

"There is nothing to forgive," replied George softly. Then, to humor his old guardian, he departed. A strong grip of the hand was exchanged between them. George left the room and saw Ireland lying as still as any corpse. Only his lips moved, and they murmured continuously, "Rosina, Rosina!" He was true to the woman he loved to the very end.

George left the house, as there was nothing he could do, but he intended to call in again. Meanwhile he repaired to Amelia square to see Bawdsey. Derrington wished him to tell the detective to stop looking after the case and discharge him from his employment. In his pocket George had a check for $1,000, and when this was paid the whole case was to be relegated to obscurity. The sooner Bawdsey married Lola and went to America the better, Derrington thought. And for his own sake Bawdsey would hold his tongue, seeing what a close connection he was of the dead woman.

"What you are ill," protested the young man.

"I am dying. But what of that? I am glad to die. I shall meet Rosina again after long, long years of sorrow. Go, George. We understand one another, and you have forgiven me. There is no more to be said."

"There is nothing to forgive," replied George softly. Then, to humor his old guardian, he departed. A strong grip of the hand was exchanged between them. George left the room and saw Ireland lying as still as any corpse. Only his lips moved, and they murmured continuously, "Rosina, Rosina!" He was true to the woman he loved to the very end.

George left the house, as there was nothing he could do, but he intended to call in again. Meanwhile he repaired to Amelia square to see Bawdsey. Derrington wished him to tell the detective to stop looking after the case and discharge him from his employment. In his pocket George had a check for $1,000, and when this was paid the whole case was to be relegated to obscurity. The sooner Bawdsey married Lola and went to America the better, Derrington thought. And for his own sake Bawdsey would hold his tongue, seeing what a close connection he was of the dead woman.

"What you are ill," protested the young man.

"I am dying. But what of that? I am glad to die. I shall meet Rosina again after long, long years of sorrow. Go, George. We understand one another, and you have forgiven me. There is no more to be said."

"There is nothing to forgive," replied George softly. Then, to humor his old guardian, he departed. A strong grip of the hand was exchanged between them. George left the room and saw Ireland lying as still as any corpse. Only his lips moved, and they murmured continuously, "Rosina, Rosina!" He was true to the woman he loved to the very end.

George left the house, as there was nothing he could do, but he intended to call in again. Meanwhile he repaired to Amelia square to see Bawdsey. Derrington wished him to tell the detective to stop looking after the case and discharge him from his employment. In his pocket George had a check for $1,000, and when this was paid the whole case was to be relegated to obscurity. The sooner Bawdsey married Lola and went to America the better, Derrington thought. And for his own sake Bawdsey would hold his tongue, seeing what a close connection he was of the dead woman.

"What you are ill," protested the young man.

"I am dying. But what of that? I am glad to die. I shall meet Rosina again after long, long years of sorrow. Go, George. We understand one another, and you have forgiven me. There is no more to be said."

"There is nothing to forgive," replied George softly. Then, to humor his old guardian, he departed. A strong grip of the hand was exchanged between them. George left the room and saw Ireland lying as still as any corpse. Only his lips moved, and they murmured continuously, "Rosina, Rosina!" He was true to the woman he loved to the very end.

George left the house, as there was nothing he could do, but he intended to call in again. Meanwhile he repaired to Amelia square to see Bawdsey. Derrington wished him to tell the detective to stop looking after the case and discharge him from his employment. In his pocket George had a check for $1,000, and when this was paid the whole case was to be relegated to obscurity. The sooner Bawdsey married Lola and went to America the better, Derrington thought. And for his own sake Bawdsey would hold his tongue, seeing what a close connection he was of the dead woman.

"What you are ill," protested the young man.

"I am dying. But what of that? I am glad to die. I shall meet Rosina again after long, long years of sorrow. Go, George. We understand one another, and you have forgiven me. There is no more to be said."

"There is nothing to forgive," replied George softly. Then, to humor his old guardian, he departed. A strong grip of the hand was exchanged between them. George left the room and saw Ireland lying as still as any corpse. Only his lips moved, and they murmured continuously, "Rosina, Rosina!" He was true to the woman he loved to the very end.

George left the house, as there was nothing he could do, but he intended to call in again. Meanwhile he repaired to Amelia square to see Bawdsey. Derrington wished him to tell the detective to stop looking after the case and discharge him from his employment. In his pocket George had a check for $1,000, and when this was paid the whole case was to be relegated to obscurity. The sooner Bawdsey married Lola and went to America the better, Derrington thought. And for his own sake Bawdsey would hold his tongue, seeing what a close connection he was of the dead woman.

"What you are ill," protested the young man.

Bawdsey was at home and saw George at once. He looked rather excited and could hardly keep his seat. "Well, Mr. Brendon," he asked, "what is it?"

"I should rather ask you that," said George. "You seem excited."

"Not very. Only I have been fortunate in some business, and—"

"What is the business?"

"I'll tell you that later. What is yours?"

"A pleasant one," rejoined George. "Here is the check for $1,000 which my grandfather promised you, Marry Lola and go to the States and stop searching for the assassin of Mrs. Jersey."

"Thank you," replied Bawdsey, taking the check eagerly. "Your grandfather is a prince, Mr. Brendon. As to the case, why should I stop searching?"

"You will never find the assassin."

"Pardon me," said Bawdsey in high glee. "I have found the assassin. Miss Bull killed Mrs. Jersey."

"But what reason?"

"Ah, that's a long story! She shall tell you herself."

"Have you had her arrested?"

"Not yet. But she will be arrested before the end of the day. I have already communicated with Scotland Yard. It was your idea about Margery that put me on the scent," Bawdsey said, with great complacency.

"Though, to be sure, I had my suspicions before. It was to watch Miss Bull that I came here."

"What made you think that she was guilty?"

"Well, it seemed to me that she was the only person who could have killed Eliza. She and Eliza hated one another because of their mutual love for your father."

George groaned. What a lot of trouble his father had caused with his handsome looks and charming manners! Even after his death the fatal attraction he exercised seemed to bring about disaster. "She did not kill Mrs. Jersey on that account," he said.

"Wait till you hear. She will tell you. In fact, she asked me to send for you, as she wishes to speak."

"Let me hear how you came to learn that this poor creature struck the blow. You say that it was some remarkable I made it."

"Yes, it was," said Bawdsey eagerly, throwing himself into a seat. "Your remark that Margery might be guilty."

"One moment," interrupted George in his turn. "I may tell you that I have seen Mr. Ireland, and he declares that he never was near the house on that night, that he knew nothing of the confession, and that he had no latchkey. He is innocent."

"Now that I have heard Miss Bull I know that, sir. She's the one."

"Well, and how did you find out?"

Bawdsey cleared his throat and began, with a most important air: "I rather agreed with your idea that Margery might be guilty," he said, "and when I turned it over in my own mind I thought it more and more probable. I therefore determined to get Margery alone and work on her fears. Well, it was this morning in the sitting room. Miss Bull had gone out and had left Margery to make up some accounts. The girl was laboring away at them and getting into a hopeless mess. I came to speak with her and offered to do them. I soon put the accounts to rights and then began to talk of Miss Bull."

"Why Miss Bull?"

"Why?—Bawdsey plucked his lip—"I thought at the time that Margery was guilty, and that if in talking to her I laid the blame on Miss Bull the girl would speak out."

"Well, you accused Miss Bull of the crime?"

"In a way I did. Margery denied it."

"What did you say?"

"That she might as well confess. I declared that I had evidence to prove Miss Bull's guilt, and that she would be arrested when she came back. I declare, Mr. Vane, I thought the girl would strike me. She was like a wildcat."

"I wish she had," growled George.

"She said if I arrested Miss Bull she would kill me. I said, 'As you killed your aunt.' She up and said: 'Yes, I did kill her. Miss Bull is innocent, and you know she is.' Of course, when she admitted the fact, I at once began to suspect Miss Bull."

"Why did you do that?"

"Because if Margery had been guilty she would not have owned up. But if Miss Bull was guilty, Margery would certainly take the guilt on herself. While Margery was threatening me and taking the guilt on herself, Miss Bull came in. That stupid girl ran to her and fell at her feet, crying that I knew all, but that she would die for her dear Miss Bull."

"And what did the woman say?"

"She asked me if I knew. I said I did. She demanded how I found out. I told her that that was my business. She began to snivel a rat and suspected that I was bluffing. She would have caused the death. I shall lie down forever. But I am glad you know. I am glad you are not angered."

"We are the best of friends, Mr. Ireland. You have always been kind to me. I am afraid my visit has been too much for you."

"No, I am glad you came. I am glad you spoke out. I always intended to do so, but I feared lest you should blame me."

"By this time they were ascending the stairs. George conducted the old man to his room and sent for the doctor. Ireland undressed and got to bed. Then he insisted on George leaving him."

"But you are ill," protested the young man.

"I am dying. But what of that? I am glad to die. I shall meet Rosina again after long, long years of sorrow. Go, George. We understand one another, and you have forgiven me. There is no more to be said."

"There is nothing to forgive," replied George softly. Then, to humor his old guardian, he departed. A strong grip of the hand was exchanged between them. George left the room and saw Ireland lying as still as any corpse. Only his lips moved, and they murmured continuously, "Rosina, Rosina!" He was true to the woman he loved to the very end.

George left the house, as there was nothing he could do, but he intended to call in again. Meanwhile he repaired to Amelia square to see Bawdsey. Derrington wished him to tell the detective to stop looking after the case and discharge him from his employment. In his pocket George had a check for $1,000, and when this was paid the whole case was to be relegated to obscurity. The sooner Bawdsey married Lola and went to America the better, Derrington thought. And for his own sake Bawdsey would hold his tongue, seeing what a close connection he was of the dead woman.

"What you are ill," protested the young man.

"I am dying. But what of that? I am glad to die. I shall meet Rosina again after long, long years of sorrow. Go, George. We understand one another, and you have forgiven me. There is no more to be said."

"There is nothing to forgive," replied George softly. Then, to humor his old guardian, he departed. A strong grip of the hand was exchanged between them. George left the room and saw Ireland lying as still as any corpse. Only his lips moved, and they murmured continuously, "Rosina, Rosina!" He was true to the woman he loved to the very end.

George left the house, as there was nothing he could do, but he intended to call in again. Meanwhile he repaired to Amelia square to see Bawdsey. Derrington wished him to tell the detective to stop looking after the case and discharge him from his employment. In his pocket George had a check for $1,000, and when this was paid the whole case was to be relegated to obscurity. The sooner Bawdsey married Lola and went to America the better, Derrington thought. And for his own sake Bawdsey would hold his tongue, seeing what a close connection he was of the dead woman.

"What you are ill," protested the young man.

"I am dying. But what of that? I am glad to die. I shall meet Rosina again after long, long years of sorrow. Go, George. We understand one another, and you have forgiven me. There is no more to be said."

"There is nothing to forgive," replied George softly. Then, to humor his old guardian, he departed. A strong grip of the hand was exchanged between them. George left the room and saw Ireland lying as still as any corpse. Only his lips moved, and they murmured continuously, "Rosina, Rosina!" He was true to the woman he loved to the very end.

George left the house, as there was nothing he could do, but he intended to call in again. Meanwhile he repaired to Amelia square to see Bawdsey. Derrington wished him to tell the detective to stop looking after the case and discharge him from his employment. In his pocket George had a check for $1,000, and when this was paid the whole case was to be relegated to obscurity. The sooner Bawdsey married Lola and went to America the better, Derrington thought. And for his own sake Bawdsey would hold his tongue, seeing what a close connection he was of the dead woman.

"What you are ill," protested the young man.

"I am dying. But what of that? I am glad to die. I shall meet Rosina again after long, long years of sorrow. Go, George. We understand one another, and you have forgiven me. There is no more to be said."

"There is nothing to forgive," replied George softly. Then, to humor his old guardian, he departed. A strong grip of the hand was exchanged between them. George left the room and saw Ireland lying as still as any corpse. Only his lips moved, and they murmured continuously, "Rosina, Rosina!" He was true to the woman he loved to the very end.

George left the house, as there was nothing he could do, but he intended to call in again. Meanwhile he repaired to Amelia square to see Bawdsey. Derrington wished him to tell the detective to stop looking after the case and discharge him from his employment. In his pocket George had a check for $1,000, and when this was paid the whole case was to be relegated to obscurity. The sooner Bawdsey married Lola and went to America the better, Derrington thought. And for his own sake Bawdsey would hold his tongue, seeing what a close connection he was of the dead woman.

"What you are ill," protested the young man.

"I am dying. But what of that? I am glad to die. I shall meet Rosina again after long, long years of sorrow. Go, George. We understand one another, and you have forgiven me. There is no more to be said."

"There is nothing to forgive," replied George softly. Then, to humor his old guardian, he departed. A strong grip of the hand was exchanged between them. George left the room and saw Ireland lying as still as any corpse. Only his lips moved, and they murmured continuously, "Rosina, Rosina!" He was true to the woman he loved to the very end.

George left the house, as there was nothing he could do, but he intended to call in again. Meanwhile he repaired to Amelia square to see Bawdsey. Derrington wished him to tell the detective to stop looking after the case and discharge him from his employment. In his pocket George had a check for $1,000, and when this was paid the whole case was to be relegated to obscurity. The sooner Bawdsey married Lola and went to America the better, Derrington thought. And for his own sake Bawdsey would hold his tongue, seeing what a close connection he was of the dead woman.

"What you are ill," protested the young man.

"I am dying. But what of that? I am glad to die. I shall meet Rosina again after long, long years of sorrow. Go, George. We understand one another, and you have forgiven me. There is no more to be said."

"There is nothing to forgive," replied George softly. Then, to humor his old guardian, he departed. A strong grip of the hand was exchanged between them. George left the room and saw Ireland lying as still as any corpse. Only his lips moved, and they murmured continuously, "Rosina, Rosina!" He was true to the woman he loved to the very end.

George left the house, as there was nothing he could do, but he intended to call in again. Meanwhile he repaired to Amelia square to see Bawdsey. Derrington wished him to tell the detective to stop looking after the case and discharge him from his employment. In his pocket George had a check for $1,000, and when this was paid the whole case was to be relegated to obscurity. The sooner Bawdsey married Lola and went to America the better, Derrington thought. And for his own sake Bawdsey would hold his tongue, seeing what a close connection he was of the dead woman.

"What you are ill," protested the young man.

"I am dying. But what of that? I am glad to die. I shall meet Rosina again after long, long years of sorrow. Go, George. We understand one another, and you have forgiven me. There is no more to be said."

"There is nothing to forgive," replied George softly. Then, to humor his old guardian, he departed. A strong grip of the hand was exchanged between them. George left the room and saw Ireland lying as still as any corpse. Only his lips moved, and they murmured continuously, "Rosina, Rosina!" He was true to the woman he loved to the very end.

George left the house, as there was nothing he could do, but he intended to call in again. Meanwhile he repaired to Amelia square to see Bawdsey. Derrington wished him to tell the detective to stop looking after the case and discharge him from his employment. In his pocket George had a check for $1,000, and when this was paid the whole case was to be relegated to obscurity. The sooner Bawdsey married Lola and went to America the better, Derrington thought. And for his own sake Bawdsey would hold his tongue, seeing what a close connection he was of the dead woman.

"What you are ill," protested the young man.

"I am dying. But what of that? I am glad to die. I shall meet Rosina again after long, long years of sorrow. Go, George. We understand one another, and you have forgiven me. There is no more to be said."

"There is nothing to forgive," replied George softly. Then, to humor his old guardian, he departed. A strong grip of the hand was exchanged between them. George left the room and saw Ireland lying as still as any corpse. Only his lips moved, and they murmured continuously, "Rosina, Rosina!" He was true to the woman he loved to the very end.

George left the house, as there was nothing he could do, but he intended to call in again. Meanwhile he repaired to Amelia square to see Bawdsey. Derrington wished him to tell the detective to stop looking after the case and discharge him from his employment. In his pocket George had a check for $1,000, and when this was paid the whole case was to be relegated to obscurity. The sooner Bawdsey married Lola and went to America the better, Derrington thought. And for his own sake Bawdsey would hold his tongue, seeing what a close connection he was of the dead woman.

"What you are ill," protested the young man.

"I am dying. But what of that? I am glad to die. I shall meet Rosina again after long, long years of sorrow. Go, George. We understand one another, and you have forgiven me. There is no more to be said."

"There is nothing to forgive," replied George softly. Then, to humor his old guardian, he departed. A strong grip of the hand was exchanged between them. George left the room and saw Ireland lying as still as any corpse. Only his lips moved, and they murmured continuously, "Rosina, Rosina!" He was true to the woman he loved to the very end.

George left the house, as there was nothing he could do, but he intended to call in again. Meanwhile he repaired to Amelia square to see Bawdsey. Derrington wished him to tell the detective to stop looking after the case and discharge him from his employment. In his pocket George had a check for $1,000, and when this was paid the whole case was to be relegated to obscurity. The sooner Bawdsey married Lola and went to America the better, Derrington thought. And for his own sake Bawdsey would hold his tongue, seeing what a close connection he was of the dead woman.

"What you are ill," protested the young man.

"I am dying. But what of that? I am glad to die. I shall meet Rosina again after long, long years of sorrow. Go, George. We understand one another, and you have forgiven me. There is no more to be said."

"There is nothing to forgive," replied George softly. Then, to humor his old guardian, he departed. A strong grip of the hand was exchanged between them. George left the room and saw Ireland lying as still as any corpse. Only his lips moved, and they murmured continuously, "Rosina, Rosina!" He was true to the woman he loved to the very end.

George left the house, as there was nothing he could do, but he intended to call in again. Meanwhile he repaired to Amelia square to see Bawdsey. Derrington wished him to tell the detective to stop looking after the case and discharge him from his employment. In his pocket George had a check for $1,000, and when this was paid the whole case was to be relegated to obscurity. The sooner Bawdsey married Lola and went to America the better, Derrington thought. And for his own sake Bawdsey would hold his tongue, seeing what a close connection he was of the dead woman.

"What you are ill," protested the young man.

"I am dying. But what of that? I am glad to die. I shall meet Rosina again after long, long years of sorrow. Go, George. We understand one another, and you have forgiven me. There is no more to be said."

"There is nothing to forgive," replied George softly. Then, to humor his old guardian, he departed. A strong grip of the hand was exchanged between them. George left the room and saw Ireland lying as still as any corpse. Only his lips moved, and they murmured continuously, "Rosina, Rosina!" He was true to the woman he loved to the very end.

George left the house, as there was nothing he could do, but he intended to call in again. Meanwhile he repaired to Amelia square to see Bawdsey. Derrington wished him to tell the detective to stop looking after the case and discharge him from his employment. In his pocket George had a check for $1,000, and when this was paid the whole case was to be relegated to obscurity. The sooner Bawdsey married Lola and went to America the better, Derrington thought. And for his own sake Bawdsey would hold his tongue, seeing what a close connection he was of the dead woman.

"What you are ill," protested the young man.

"I am dying. But what of that? I am glad to die. I shall meet Rosina again after long, long years of sorrow. Go, George. We understand one another, and you have forgiven me. There is no more to be said."

"There is nothing to forgive," replied George softly. Then, to humor his old guardian, he departed. A strong grip of the hand was exchanged between them. George left the room and saw Ireland lying as still as any corpse. Only his lips moved, and they murmured continuously, "Rosina, Rosina!" He was true to the woman he loved to the very end.

George left the house, as there was nothing he could do, but he intended to call in again. Meanwhile he repaired to Amelia square to see Bawdsey. Derrington wished him to tell the detective to stop looking after the case and discharge him from his employment. In his pocket George had a check for $1,000, and when this was paid the whole case was to be relegated to obscurity. The sooner Bawdsey married Lola and went to America the better, Derrington thought. And for his own sake Bawdsey would hold his tongue, seeing what a close connection he was of the dead woman.

"What you are ill," protested the young man.

"I am dying. But what of that? I am glad to die. I shall meet Rosina again after long, long years of sorrow. Go, George. We understand one another, and you have forgiven me. There is no more to be said."

"There is nothing to forgive," replied George softly. Then, to humor his old guardian, he departed. A strong grip of the hand was exchanged between them. George left the room and saw Ireland lying as still as any corpse. Only his lips moved, and they murmured continuously, "Rosina, Rosina!" He was true to the woman he loved to the very end.

George left the house, as there was nothing he could do, but he intended to call in again. Meanwhile he repaired to Amelia square to see Bawdsey. Derrington wished him to tell the detective to stop looking after the case and discharge him from his employment. In his pocket George had a check for $1,000, and when this was paid the whole case was to be relegated to obscurity. The sooner Bawdsey married Lola and went to America the better, Derrington thought. And for his own sake Bawdsey would hold his tongue, seeing what a close connection he was of the dead woman.

"What you are ill," protested the young man.

"I am dying. But what of that? I am glad to die. I shall meet Rosina again after long, long years of sorrow. Go, George. We understand one another, and you have forgiven me. There is no more to be said."

"There is nothing to forgive," replied George softly. Then, to humor his old guardian, he departed. A strong grip of the hand was exchanged between them. George left the room and saw Ireland lying as still as any corpse. Only his lips moved, and they murmured continuously, "Rosina, Rosina!" He was true to the woman he loved to the very end.

George left the house, as there was nothing he could do, but he intended to call in again. Meanwhile he repaired to Amelia square to see Bawdsey. Derrington wished him to tell the detective to stop looking after the case and discharge him from his employment. In his pocket George had a check for $1,000, and when this was paid the whole case was to be relegated to obscurity. The sooner Bawdsey married Lola and went to America the better, Derrington thought. And for his own sake Bawdsey would hold his tongue, seeing what a close connection he was of the dead woman.

"What you are ill," protested the young man.

"I am dying. But what of that? I am glad to die. I shall meet Rosina again after long, long years of sorrow. Go, George. We understand one another, and you have forgiven me. There is no more to be said."

"There is nothing to forgive," replied George softly. Then, to humor his old guardian, he departed. A strong grip of the hand was exchanged between them. George left the room and saw Ireland lying as still as any corpse. Only his lips moved, and they murmured continuously, "Rosina, Rosina!" He was true to the woman he loved to the very end.

George left the house, as there was nothing he could do, but he intended to call in again. Meanwhile he repaired to Amelia square to see Bawdsey. Derrington wished him to tell the detective to stop looking after the case and discharge him from his employment. In his pocket George had a check for $1,000, and when this was paid the whole case was to be relegated to obscurity. The sooner Bawdsey married Lola and went to America the better, Derrington thought. And for his own sake Bawdsey would hold

NINETY YEARS AGO

THE CAPITAL WAS CAPTURED BY THE BRITISH.

Aug. 24 the Date of the Disaster—A Few Days Afterward Came the Defeat of the Invaders at North Point, Near Baltimore.

(Special Correspondence.)

The 90th anniversary of the capture of Washington by the British fell on Wednesday, Aug. 24. In that month, and the year 1814, a British force landed at Benedict, Md., and, marching through the villages of Nottingham and Marlboro, advanced to Bladensburg, six miles northeast of Washington, and there defeated an American army.

On the night following the battle the invaders camped on a common, part of which is now the east plaza of the capitol. They were reckless with the torch. The sky was red with flames from the capitol, White House, treasury, war office and private buildings fired by the English, and from the navy yard, warships moored or building there, and bridges over the Potomac and Eastern Branch, which had been fired by the Americans.

The capture of Washington by the British is a long story, but it may be briefly told. The British threatened Washington for a year and a half before making a direct effort to capture the city. Despite this long warning the American authorities made no preparation for defense.

The British maintained a fleet of warships in Chesapeake bay and had made forays on Havre-de-Grace, Fredericktown, Frenchtown and other places in Maryland and on Hampton, Va.

President Madison and his cabinet thought the British would not attack the capital. In Washington there was not a piece of artillery, a regular soldier or a properly armed company of militia. There was not a redoubt on any approach to the city. Fifteen miles down the Potomac was Fort Washington, then called Fort Warrenton, a frail structure mounting a few small guns, with one company of artillery to serve them.

The brig Ida, from Rochelle, landed at Boston May 12, 1814, and brought news that the allied troops had entered Paris, and early in June 1814, official Washington knew that several of Wellington's veteran regiments, released from European service, had embarked on troopships and, conveyed by a war fleet under Vice Admiral Cochrane, had set sail for the Chesapeake.

President Madison July 1, 1814, called the cabinet together to consider a plan for the defense of Washington. A report of the army on that date showed the force of military district No. 5 (of which the District of Columbia was a part) to be 2,154 officers and men. One thousand and eighty-three were at Norfolk, 532 at Baltimore, 320 in St. Mary's county, Md., 40 at Annapolis and 79 at Fort Washington. Not one soldier in the District of Columbia.

On July 4, 1814, a draft was made on the governors of Maryland, Virginia and Pennsylvania for militia. Depredations by the British in southern Maryland were increasing and alarm was growing in Washington. On the morning of Aug. 16, 1814, 22 sail entered the Chesapeake and joined the fleet already in the Patuxent river. The combined fleet sailed up that river and dropped anchor off Benedict.

The embarkation of troops began Aug. 19. Capt. Sir Peter Parker in the frigate Menelaus, with some small ships was dispatched toward Baltimore, and Capt. Gordon in the frigate Sea Horse with another frigate, rocket ships and armed schooners was sent around Point Lookout and up the Potomac to take Alexandria, which he did.

The Americans were gathering troops at Washington. There were two brigades of District of Columbia militia and volunteers numbering 1,620 men. Then there were three regiments from Baltimore and two volunteer batteries. There were two other regiments of Maryland militia and one Virginia regiment. There were about 300 volunteer cavalry from the District of Columbia, Maryland and Virginia commanded by Lieut. Col. Tighman.

Old House Near Bladensburg Where Admiral Cockburn and Gen. Ross Ate Breakfast the Morning of the Battle.

The regular army of the United States was represented by detachments from the 36th and 38th Infantry numbering 200 men under Lieut. Col. William Scott, one company of the 12th regiment, Capt. Morgan, and a squadron of dragoons under Lieut. Col. Laval Barney was ready to lend assistance with 400 soldiers.

The American army for the defense of Washington was 7,000 men. All of these were raw recruits, excepting 900 selected soldiers and sailors. These men were to oppose about 8,000 English veterans. The Americans had 26 pieces of artillery, of which 20 were six-pounders.

The English column moved out of Benedict Aug. 20 and was at Nottingham ham, 15 miles from Benedict, on the evening of the 21st. The squadron of American dragoons was sent to harass the enemy's flanks, and the Americans moved down into Maryland to meet the invaders. After getting in touch with the English at Nottingham an order came from Washington to Gen. Winder to retire. He fell back to a country place called Long Old Fields, eight miles from Washington. The British advanced to Marlboro. They left that village on the morning of Aug. 23, and soon reached Long Old Fields, from which place the Americans had withdrawn.

Old Mill at Bladensburg From Behind Which American Riflemen Annoyed the Advancing English.

On the morning of Aug. 24 the Americans, wearied by their marches and retreats, were drawn up near Bladensburg, with their backs to Washington, six miles away. Between them and the village of Bladensburg ran the eastern branch, fordable, but yet crossed by a bridge. At noon the enemy appeared in Bladensburg, threw rockets at the Americans and started to cross the bridge. The American artillery spoke, and the English retired with a loss of one killed and two wounded. Again the enemy advanced in two columns, one crossing the bridge and one fording the stream. Reaching the Washington side of the stream the British moved to the attack. The main part of the American line, after firing a few rounds, left the field. The troops rallied quickly and formed a line of battle one mile farther back. Barney's men being in the center. The fighting continued for half an hour. Barney was wounded. Col. Thornton, Capt. Hamilton and Lieut. Cold of the English army were killed. The sailors, aided by Peter's battery and Murguder's regiment, were fighting well. But the American line gave way. It rallied again and reformed three miles farther back, when it was ordered to retire through Washington and Georgetown. The troops were enraged at this order, and mutiny impended, but at length the little volunteer army left the field.

At 8 o'clock on the evening of Aug. 24 the British entered Washington, turning from the Bladensburg road into Maryland avenue and marching to the east front of the capitol. Commodore Tingey set fire to the navy yard, and the new frigate Columbia and the stoop-of-war Argus were burned. A party of American soldiers in Virginia fired the Great bridge over the Potomac and two bridges over the eastern branch were set fire to by our troops.

The British entered the capitol and applied the torch, using the 1,000 books composing the library of congress for kindling. The capitol of 1814 was a far different building to the capitol of 1904. Only the two little sandstone wings were standing. The central structure on which the dome rests had not been built. A wooden passage connected the two wings. The stone walls were not much damaged by fire. The English went to the White House. Madison, expecting a victory, had prepared a feast for the American officers. Madison and his cabinet fled, but left the feast. The English ate this and set fire to the building. They also burned the offices of the treasury and the war office.

On the morning of Aug. 25 the invaders withdrew from Washington, marched back to Benedict over the road they had come, embarked on their ships and sailed to North Point, near Baltimore, where they were badly beaten, where Gen. Ross was killed and where, during the course of the fighting "The Star Spangled Banner" was written.

Would Stop Runaway Horses. Once, when Daniel Webster was riding along a New England road in a stage coach, so the story runs, he was annoyed by the jolting, and poked his head out of the window to yell at the driver.

"Hey, can't you drive a little slower?" "No," responded the coachman, "the horses are running away, sir." "Run 'em into a fence corner," advised Daniel.

"Can't sir," said the driver reluctantly and despairingly. "They've got the bits between their teeth, sir!" "Well, run them into debt, then," thundered Daniel. "That'll stop anything!"—Detroit News.

Clever Horse Watches Groom. Hans, the performing horse, which made a sensation in Berlin for a few days because it was thought he could count, spell, etc., has been proved a fraud, or his owner has. His groom has confessed. As to the counting, as long as the groom kept his eyes on the ground Hans continued stamping with a hoof. As soon as the groom looked up the horse ceased to stamp. All his tricks were done by signal.

Poor Riley's Barber Is Fined. Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 3.—James Whitcomb Riley, the poet, was compelled to testify by a labor union against William Miller, at whose shop Mr. Riley has been shaved on Sunday for many years, and the barber was fined $1.

SICK AND DISCOURAGED WOMEN. NU-TRI-OLA will make the NEW LIFE. A book of "SECRETS" for women FREE.

Raising Connecticut Tobacco. This has been so far a phenomenal year for the tobacco industry in New England—an industry that probably many New Englanders hardly suspect exists nowadays in this part of the country. The beauty of these northern tobacco fields is, however, a familiar spectacle to passengers on the trolley cars between Hartford and Springfield, for the cars run past mile after mile of growing tobacco, worth something like $300 an acre.

Millions of cigar smokers would perhaps thrill to realize that it was here, something over a century ago, that Mrs. Pratt, at her husband's suggestion, rolled leaves of Connecticut tobacco in the first American cigars and peddled them about the villages of Connecticut.

Russians Evade Military Service. In the town of Yurlof, Russia, the wine and spirit stores were recently closed on the occasion of the assembly of the soldiers called upon to join the army by a mobilization order. The apothecaries' establishments, however, remained open, and from these the soldiers obtained quantities of balsam, which they consumed. As a consequence thirteen of their number died, and many more are seriously ill. The journal that gives publicity to the incident states that many soldiers are drinking the poisoned liquid in order that they may escape military service.

Carries a Curse. A Babylonian door socket of 3800 B. C., which is now at the University of Pennsylvania, has inscribed upon it a curse upon any one who moves it. As a matter of fact, the moving of the stone is always attended by calamity.

Husband's New Meanness. When a woman cries her husband calls himself names, but as soon as she stops crying he says he didn't mean it. That's the new way.

Soldiers Sue Government and Win. Washington, Nov. 3.—A number of officers who served in the Third, Fifth and Sixth Illinois volunteer regiments during the Spanish war received judgments in the United States court of claims for extra pay due because they were discharged without furlough.

Bank Is Able to Pay Half. Carbondale, Ill., Nov. 3.—The banking house of N. J. Powers of Mukanda, which closed its doors Tuesday, will be able, it is said, to pay only 55 cents on the dollar. George Schwartz of Carbondale has been named as assignee.

Two Dead Through Mistake. Indianapolis, Nov. 3.—Mrs. Susie Cox, aged 46, and Mrs. Sarah Shaw, colored, aged 35, are dead through the mistake of Miss Funk, a nurse at the city hospital, who gave them a drink of a solution of carbolic acid, thinking it was sterilized water.

Dentist Is Murdered. New Ulm, Minn., Nov. 3.—Dr. L. A. Cobhard, a dentist, was found murdered in his office here. Blood was spattered on the walls and furniture was overturned. A blood-stained knife and a hammer were found near the body.

CHICAGO MARKETS
From B. W. Frank & Co., 4204 Jackson Block, Janesville.
G. Scarfield Resident Manager.
	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.
WHEAT—
May.....	111 1/2	112 1/2	111 1/2	112 1/2	112 1/2
July.....	112 1/2	113 1/2	112 1/2	113 1/2	113 1/2
Sept.....	113 1/2	114 1/2	113 1/2	114 1/2	114 1/2
Oct.....	114 1/2	115 1/2	114 1/2	115 1/2	115 1/2
Nov.....	115 1/2	116 1/2	115 1/2	116 1/2	116 1/2
Dec.....	116 1/2	117 1/2	116 1/2	117 1/2	117 1/2
Jan.....	117 1/2	118 1/2	117 1/2	118 1/2	118 1/2
Feb.....	118 1/2	119 1/2	118 1/2	119 1/2	119 1/2
Mar.....	119 1/2	120 1/2	119 1/2	120 1/2	120 1/2
Apr.....	120 1/2	121 1/2	120 1/2	121 1/2	121 1/2
May.....	121 1/2	122 1/2	121 1/2	122 1/2	122 1/2
June.....	122 1/2	123 1/2	122 1/2	123 1/2	123 1/2
July.....	123 1/2	124 1/2	123 1/2	124 1/2	124 1/2
Aug.....	124 1/2	125 1/2	124 1/2	125 1/2	125 1/2
Sept.....	125 1/2	126 1/2	125 1/2	126 1/2	126 1/2
Oct.....	126 1/2	127 1/2	126 1/2	127 1/2	127 1/2
Nov.....	127 1/2	128 1/2	127 1/2	128 1/2	128 1/2
Dec.....	128 1/2	129 1/2	128 1/2	129 1/2	129 1/2
Jan.....	129 1/2	130 1/2	129 1/2	130 1/2	130 1/2
Feb.....	130 1/2	131 1/2	130 1/2	131 1/2	131 1/2
Mar.....	131 1/2	132 1/2	131 1/2	132 1/2	132 1/2
Apr.....	132 1/2	133 1/2	132 1/2	133 1/2	133 1/2
May.....	133 1/2	134 1/2	133 1/2	134 1/2	134 1/2
June.....	134 1/2	135 1/2	134 1/2	135 1/2	135 1/2
July.....	135 1/2	136 1/2	135 1/2	136 1/2	136 1/2
Aug.....	136 1/2	137 1/2	136 1/2	137 1/2	137 1/2
Sept.....	137 1/2	138 1/2	137 1/2	138 1/2	138 1/2
Oct.....	138 1/2	139 1/2	138 1/2	139 1/2	139 1/2
Nov.....	139 1/2	140 1/2	139 1/2	140 1/2	140 1/2
Dec.....	140 1/2	141 1/2	140 1/2	141 1/2	141 1/2
Jan.....	141 1/2	142 1/2	141 1/2	142 1/2	142 1/2
Feb.....	142 1/2	143 1/2	142 1/2	143 1/2	143 1/2
Mar.....	143 1/2	144 1/2	143 1/2	144 1/2	144 1/2
Apr.....	144 1/2	145 1/2	144 1/2	145 1/2	145 1/2
May.....	145 1/2	146 1/2	145 1/2	146 1/2	146 1/2
June.....	146 1/2	147 1/2	146 1/2	147 1/2	147 1/2
July.....	147 1/2	148 1/2	147 1/2	148 1/2	148 1/2
Aug.....	148 1/2	149 1/2	148 1/2	149 1/2	149 1/2
Sept.....	149 1/2	150 1/2	149 1/2	150 1/2	150 1/2
Oct.....	150 1/2	151 1/2	150 1/2	151 1/2	151 1/2
Nov.....	151 1/2	152 1/2	151 1/2	152 1/2	152 1/2
Dec.....	152 1/2	153 1/2	152 1/2	153 1/2	153 1/2
Jan.....	153 1/2	154 1/2	153 1/2	154 1/2	154 1/2
Feb.....	154 1/2	155 1/2	154 1/2	155 1/2	155 1/2
Mar.....	155 1/2	156 1/2	155 1/2	156 1/2	156 1/2
Apr.....	156 1/2	157 1/2	156 1/2	157 1/2	157 1/2
May.....	157 1/2	158 1/2	157 1/2	158 1/2	158 1/2
June.....	158 1/2	159 1/2	158 1/2	159 1/2	159 1/2
July.....	159 1/2	160 1/2	159 1/2	160 1/2	160 1/2
Aug.....	160 1/2	161 1/2	160 1/2	161 1/2	161 1/2
Sept.....	161 1/2	162 1/2	161 1/2	162 1/2	162 1/2
Oct.....	162 1/2	163 1/2	162 1/2	163 1/2	163 1/2
Nov.....	163 1/2	164 1/2	163 1/2	164 1/2	164 1/2
Dec.....	164 1/2	165 1/2	164 1/2	165 1/2	165 1/2
Jan.....	165 1/2	166 1/2	165 1/2	166 1/2	166 1/2
Feb.....	166 1/2	167 1/2	166 1/2	167 1/2	167 1/2
Mar.....	167 1/2	168 1/2	167 1/2	168 1/2	168 1/2
Apr.....	168 1/2	169 1/2	168 1/2	169 1/2	169 1/2
May.....	169 1/2	170 1/2	169 1/2	170 1/2	170 1/2
June.....	170 1/2	171 1/2	170 1/2	171 1/2	171 1/2
July.....	171 1/2	172 1/2	171 1/2	172 1/2	172 1/2
Aug.....	172 1/2	173 1/2	172 1/2	173 1/2	173 1/2
Sept.....	173 1/2	174 1/2	173 1/2	174 1/2	174 1/2
Oct.....	174 1/2	175 1/2	174 1/2	175 1/2	175 1/2
Nov.....	175 1/2	176 1/2	175 1/2	176 1/2	176 1/2
Dec.....	176 1/2	177 1/2	176 1/2	177 1/2	177 1/2
Jan.....	177 1/2	178 1/2	177 1/2	178 1/2	178 1/2
Feb.....	178 1/2	179 1/2	178 1/2	179 1/2	179 1/2
Mar.....	179 1/2	180 1/2	179 1/2	180 1/2	180 1/2
Apr.....	180 1/2	181 1/2	180 1/2	181 1/2	181 1/2
May.....	181 1/2	182 1/2	181 1/2	182 1/2	182 1/2
June.....	182 1/2	183 1/2	182 1/2	183 1/2	183 1/2
July.....	183 1/2	184 1/2	183 1/2	184 1/2	184 1/2
Aug.....	184 1/2	185 1/2	184 1/2	185 1/2	185 1/2
Sept.....	185 1/2	186 1/2	185 1/2	186 1/2	186 1/2
Oct.....	186 1/2	187 1/2	186 1/2	187 1/2	187 1/2
Nov.....	187 1/2	188 1/2	187 1/2	188 1/2	188 1/2
Dec.....	188 1/2	189 1/2	188 1/2	189 1/2	189 1/2
Jan.....	189 1/2	190 1/2	189 1/2	190 1/2	190 1/2
Feb.....	190 1/2	191 1/2	190 1/2	191 1/2	191 1/2
Mar.....	191 1/2	192 1/2	191 1/2	192 1/2	192 1/2
Apr.....	192 1/2	193 1/2	192 1/2	193 1/2	193 1/2
May.....	193 1/2	194 1/2	193 1/2	194 1/2	194 1/2
June.....	194 1/2	195 1/2	194 1/2	195 1/2	195 1/2
July.....	195 1/2	196 1/2	195 1/2	196 1/2	196 1/2
Aug.....	196 1/2	197 1/2	196 1/2	197 1/2	197 1/2
Sept.....	197 1/2	198 1/2	197 1/2	198 1/2	198 1/2
Oct.....	198 1/2	199 1/2	198 1/2	199 1/2	199 1/2
Nov.....	199 1/2	200 1/2	199 1/2	200 1/2	200 1/2
Dec.....	200 1/2	201 1/2	200 1/2	201 1/2	201 1/2
Jan.....	201 1/2	202 1/2	201 1/2	202 1/2	202 1/2
Feb.....	202 1/2	203 1/2	202 1/2	203 1/2	203 1/2
Mar.....	203 1/2	204 1/2	203 1/2	204 1/2	204 1/2
Apr.....	204 1/2	205 1/2	204 1/2	205 1/2	205 1/2
May.....	205 1/2	206 1/2	205 1/2	206 1/2	206 1/2
June.....	206 1/2	207 1/2	206 1/2	207 1/2	207 1/2
July.....	207 1/2	208 1/2	207 1/2	208 1/2	208 1/2
Aug.....	208 1/2	209 1/2	208 1/2	209 1/2	209 1/2
Sept.....	209 1/2	210 1/2	209 1/2	210 1/2	210 1/2
Oct.....	210 1/2	211 1/2	210 1/2	211 1/2	211 1/2
Nov.....	211 1/2	212 1/2	211 1/2	212 1/2	212 1/2
Dec.....	212 1/2	213 1/2	212 1/2	213 1/2	213 1/2
Jan.....	213 1/2	214 1/2	213 1/2	214 1/2	214 1/2
Feb.....	214 1/2	215 1/2	214 1/2	215 1/2	215 1/2
Mar.....	215 1/2	216 1/2	215 1/2	216 1/2	216 1/2
Apr.....	216 1/2	217 1/2	216 1/2	217 1/2	217 1/2
May.....	217 1/2	218 1/2	217 1/2	218 1/2	218 1/2
June.....	218 1/2	219 1/2	218 1/2	219 1/2	219 1/2
July.....	219 1/2	220 1/2	219 1/2	220 1/2	220 1/2
Aug.....	220 1/2	221 1/2	220 1/2	221 1/2	221 1/2
Sept.....	221 1/2	222 1/2	221 1/2	222 1/2	222 1/2
Oct.....	222 1/2	223 1/2	222 1/2	223 1/2	223 1/2
Nov.....	223 1/2	224 1/2	223 1/2	224 1/2	224 1/2
Dec.....	224 1/2	225 1/2	224 1/2	225 1/2	225 1/2
Jan.....	225 1/2	226 1/2	225 1/2	226 1/2	226 1/2
Feb.....	226 1/2	227 1/2	226 1/2	227 1/2	227 1/2
Mar.....	227 1/2	228 1/2	227 1/2	228 1/2	228 1/2
Apr.....	228 1/2	229 1/2	228 1/2	229 1/2	229 1/2
May.....	229 1/2	230 1/2	229 1/2	230 1/2	230 1/2
June.....	230 1/2	231 1/2	230 1/2	231 1/2	231 1/2
July.....	231 1/2	232 1/2	231 1/2	232 1/2	232 1/2
Aug.....	232 1/2	233 1/2	232 1/2	233 1/2	233 1/2
Sept.....	233 1/2	234 1/2	233 1/2	234 1/2	234 1/2
Oct.....	234 1/2	235 1/2	234 1/2	235 1/2	235 1/2
Nov.....	235 1/2	236 1/2	235 1/2	236 1/2	236 1/2
Dec.....	236 1/2	237 1/2	236 1/2	237 1/2	237 1/2
Jan.....	237 1/2	238 1/2	237 1/2	238 1/2	238 1/2
Feb.....	238 1/2	239 1/2	238 1/2	239 1/2	239 1/2
Mar.....	239 1/2	240 1/2	239 1/2	240 1/2	240 1/2
Apr.....	240 1/2	241 1/2	240 1/2	241 1/2	241 1/2
May.....	241 1/2	242 1/2	241 1/2	242 1/2	242 1/2
June.....	242 1/2	243 1/2	242 1/2	243 1/2	243 1/2
July.....	243 1/2	244 1/2	243 1/2	244 1/2	244 1/2
Aug.....	244 1/2	245 1/2	244 1/2	245 1/2	245 1/2
Sept.....	245 1/2	246 1/2	245 1/2	246 1/2	246 1/2
Oct.....	246 1/2	247 1/2	246 1/2	247 1/2	247 1/2
Nov.....	247 1/2	248 1/2	247 1/2	248 1/2	248 1/2
Dec.....	248 1/2	249 1/2	248 1/2	249 1/2	249 1/2
Jan.....	249 1/2	250 1/2	249 1/2	250 1/2	250 1/2
Feb.....	250 1/2	251 1/2	250 1/2	251 1/2	251 1/2
Mar.....	251 1/2	252 1/2	251 1/2	252 1/2	252 1/2
Apr.....	252 1/2	253 1/2	252 1/2	253 1/2	253 1/2
May.....	253 1/2	254 1/2	253 1/2	254 1/2	254 1/2
June.....	254 1/2	255 1/2	254 1/2	255 1/2	255 1/2
July.....	255 1/2	256 1/2	255 1/2	256 1/2	256 1/2
Aug.....	256 1/2	257 1/2	256 1/2	257 1/2	257 1/2
Sept.....	257 1/2	258 1/2	257 1/2	258 1/2	258 1/2
Oct.....	258 1/2	259 1/2	258 1/2	259 1/2	259 1/2
Nov.....	259 1/2	260 1/2	259 1/2	260 1/2	260 1/2
Dec.....	260 1/2	261 1/2	260 1/2	261 1/2	261 1/2
Jan.....	261 1/2	262 1/2	261 1/2	262 1/2	262 1/2
Feb.....	262 1/2	263 1/2	262 1/2	263 1/2	263 1/2
Mar.....	263 1/2	264 1/2	263 1/2	264 1/2	264 1/2
Apr.....	264 1/2	265 1/2	264 1/2	265 1/2	265 1/2
May.....	265 1/2	266 1/2	265 1/2	266 1/2	266 1/2
June.....	266 1/2	267 1/2	266 1/2	267 1/2	267 1/2
July.....	267 1/2	268 1/2	267 1/2	268 1/2	268 1/2
Aug.....	268 1/2	269 1/2	268 1/2	269 1/2	269 1/2
Sept.....	269 1/2	270 1/2	269 1/2	270 1/2	270 1/2
Oct.....	270 1/2	271 1/2	270 1/2	271 1/2	271 1/2
Nov.....	271 1/2	272 1/2	271 1/2	272 1/2	272 1/2
Dec.....	272 1/2	273 1/2	272 1/2	273 1/2	273 1/2
Jan.....	273 1/2	274 1/2	273 1/2	274 1/2	274 1/2
Feb.....	274 1/2	275 1/2	274 1/2	275 1/2	275 1/2
Mar.....	275 1/2	276 1/2	275 1/2	276 1/2	276 1/2
Apr.....	276 1/2	277 1/2	276 1/2	277 1/2	277 1/2
May.....	277 1/2	278 1/2	277 1/2	278 1/2	278 1/2
June.....	278 1/2	279 1/2	278 1/2	279 1/2	279 1/2
July.....	279 1/2	280 1/2	279 1/2	280 1/2	280 1/2
Aug.....	280 1/2	281 1/2	280 1/2	281 1/2	281 1/2
Sept.....	281 1/2	282 1/2	281 1/2	282 1/2	282 1/2
Oct.....	282 1/2	283 1/2	282 1/2	283 1/2	283 1/2
Nov.....	283 1/2	284 1/2	283 1/2	28	